A SHOW THAT PLEASES HERE WEDNESDAY

This is the verdict universally accorded the Hi Henry big aggregation of minstrel bright lights which will appear at the Grand opera house on Wednesday, January 20. The Hi Henry Minstrel show is known and noted from ocean to ocean. It bears a reputation unsurpassed for its general excellency, and aims to present the latest and best in minstrelsy. The present season finds this popular star troupe still further enlarged and improved, its policy being to present each season, something better than the previous one. Those who have seen the Hi Henry minstrels of the past have not seen the Hi Henry minstrels of the present. Their management believes in progress and realizes that he has a reputation to sustain. U. OF O. INSTITUTES COMMENCEMENT DAY

[United Press Leased Wire.] University of Oregon, Jan. 19.—Hereafter on February 14th, the anniversary of the admission of Oregon into the Union, an annual conference will be held at the University of Oregon to discuss ways of enhancing the service of this institution to the people of the state. The appropriate role of the State University in the life of a progressive commonwealth is rapidly expanding. The need of Oregon for expert aid from the University in tuning up its institutional life is particularly urgent. The radically democratic organization that the people of this state have assumed, and the magnificent prospects it has in all lines make suggestions from scientific sources especially desirable.

It will also greatly stimulate the activities of the university, and give it larger purpose to get into helpful touch with the practical needs and constructive up-building of the state. Aims strongly and distinctly directed to the promotion of the common good will have more salutary ethical influence upon the student body.

The subjects for discussion at the first of these annual conferences will be (1) Oregon's Heritage—Conservation of it for the People as a Whole, and (2) The Co-ordination of the Activities of all the Educational Agencies in the State. Prominent men from all parts of Oregon will participate. The complete program will be announced in a few days.
