AND SO ALONG THE LINE

No Mercy Shown to Prices During Our ALTERATION SALE

New goods arriving daily and thrown out at the same low prices as the rest of the stock. It is not profits we are looking for now; it is a matter of disposing of the stock or cutting it down as much as possible, so we can move it around as the workmen wish. As it is now it is impossible to move it from one place to another. If you want the best merchandise sold on the Pacific Coast at bargain prices, now is your time. Somebody must get them.

The Shelves Must Be Cleared

Before we start the workmen to tear out the walls, and if prices do it, from now on there will be lively times at the Chicago Store. What do you think of these for prices on the lowest and best goods:
