

JUDGE GALLOWAY'S COURT DOCKET

Circuit Court Judge Galloway will be holding court shortly, and the following cases are set for hearing: M. H. Churchill vs. J. M. Johnson, suit to quiet title. The Eastern Investment Co. vs. J. L. Tilden, suit to remove cloud from title. Elizabeth J. Gibson vs. W. G. Gibson, divorce. E. P. Berdine vs. J. W. Inman and H. A. Inman, to quiet title. L. H. Henningsen vs. Thomas S. Jefferies, et ux., a suit to quiet title. Mary A. Ranes vs. J. E. Eldridge, et al., suit to remove cloud from title. S. J. L. Whiteman vs. H. S. Whiteman, divorce. Mallinda A. Simpson, et al., vs. Clara Stanton, et al., partition case. Gorge Zollner vs. Ella Zollner foreclosure of mortgage. T. D. Jones vs. O. A. Waller, et al., to quiet title.

Bird Structure.

Birds belong to the vertebrates, or backboneed animals. They are distinguished from the rest of the vertebrates by the graceful outlines of their bodies, by their clothing of feathers, toothless jaws and the fore limbs, or wings, being adapted to flying. Nature has made many wonderful provisions in the bird, especially in the formation and arrangement of the bones. These are compact and in many cases hollow, thus combining lightness with strength. The first bone of the backbone is so freely jointed to the skull that birds can turn their heads around and look directly back.

SMILES.

Some friends of Landlord Fish composed the following and pinned it on the door to his room last night: "A new species of fish discovered at Salem, Oregon, by the proprietor of the Willamette hotel, about two months ago. Not served at the table. This fish does not care for water, but subsists entirely on milk. When found it measured about 28 inches and weighed about 8 1/2 pounds on the proprietor's fish scales. That may account for its huge weight. The proprietor is very fond of the discovery and shows it to each new comer and fondly pats it, to the amusement of all the guests. He has named it Edwin Fish, a Willamette hotel guest."

The rich man with oaks and herds who coveted the poor man's lamb and slaughtered it for the feast prepared for Ormsby McHarg will be dealt with by the people of Oregon as was that man in the Bible. His property was taken away from him and even his memory was obliterated.

The Privileged Careless Class.

"Indians ain't allowed to scalp folks any more, are they, fawther?" "No, sonny, unless they become barbers."—Kansas City Times.

There is no case on record of a cough, cold or la grippe developing into pneumonia after Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken, as it cures the most obstinate deep seated coughs and colds. Why take anything else? J. C. Perry.

Sees Mother Grow Young. "It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Naturally.

"I understand you bought some stock in the new aeroplane company?"

"Yes, I took a flier."—Pick-Me-Up.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels, and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. Sold by all druggists.

The Invalid.

"Her husband had been a sufferer for many years, hasn't he?"

"I don't know. How long have they been married?"—Cleveland Leader.

You would not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of kidney or bladder trouble if you realized that neglect might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities and cures all kidney and bladder disorders. J. C. Perry.

SPEND YOUR HOLIDAY VACATION AT PASO ROBLES

If complete rest and most perfect conditions imaginable for nature cure are what you need, spend your holidays at Paso Robles Hot Springs, California. A week or two, and even a few days there will accomplish more in the way of restored energy than a much longer period and more expensive treatment elsewhere, because good old Mother Nature is nurse and physician.

Paso Robles is taking the same rank in America and enjoying the same fame for wonderful cures that Carlsbad and Baden Baden do in Europe. The hotel is a marvel of comfort and luxury, and the bath house built by the city, free to all, is said to be one of the best in the world. It is a stubborn ailment and a hopeless condition of physical breakdown that the mineral waters and hot mud baths of Paso Robles will not heal in a short time.

Call on agent at Salem for descriptive booklets on Paso Robles, and he will also tell you all about rates.
