A WORD FOR THE ALASKA-YUKON EXPOSITION.

The newspaper attacks on the Seattle Fair management on behalf of Oregon have not much ground to stand upon.

The Eastern papers in publishing the pictures of the buildings always present the Oregon building AS ONE OF THE MOST ATTRACTIVE FEATURES.

We do not know as another $50,000 should be appropriated for the Exposition, but whatever is required to carry our part creditably up there should be done.

It is not a good time for Oregon TO STAND BACK AND APPEAR SMALL IN SUCH UNDERTAKING.

We are advertising the state by cities and counties, and the part that the state is doing to get immigration is confined to the Seattle exposition.

The whole effort of this state SHOULD BE CONFINED TO SHOWING OUR FRUITS AND OTHER PRODUCTS in the most favorable light at that exposition which is going to be attended by hundreds of thousands interested in looking up homes and locations on the coast.

GREAT ORATORS AT SALEM.

Friday afternoon and evening there will be sessions of the Oregon and Idaho Development Congress at the state house.

The ablest orators in the state will make appeals for great lines of development work, like RAILROADS, IRRIGATION, RECLAMATION, AND WATERWAYS.

Governor Chamberlain will tell of the work of the conference of governors with President Roosevelt for the conservation of natural resources.

Col. C. E. S. Wood will make an argument for State Aided railroads, and he is ONE OF THE MOST ELOQUENT ORATORS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Hon. Ike Bingham will make a stirring appeal for the development of the great undeveloped interior of this state, where you can travel a week without seeing a railroad.

Friday evening Salem orators will have something to say for the cause of bringing mountain water to the state institutions, AND THE FUTURE OF THE CAPITAL CITY.

Let Salem people rally to this meeting at the state house when it is proposed to remove the State Fair and State Capital to Portland.

Coos Bay and the general Port Commission act will have eloquent presentation at the hands of able men.

TRUST COMPANIES MUST BE BANKERS

Senate bill 29, to require all trust companies to become banks, is ostensibly aimed at bookshops, but in reality would abolish all trust companies but those already doing a banking business—about three concerns in Portland.

Women are almost as absurd as women are frolics.

THE LIEUTENANT AND THE COWBOY

"The Lieutenant and the Cowboy" is well conceived, happily written and well balanced. The plot, with all its romance, intrigue and portrayal of military life and enough make it realistic its worked out so skillfully that it easily holds the attention of the audience throughout.

The meddlesome third party caused many a divorce

DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three weeks and being entirely cured of stomach trouble and indigestion, I think a word of praise is due to Cascarets for their wonderful composition. I have taken Cascarets before and after meals, but without result and I feel that Cascarets really work in a way that all the others I have taken would not."
