[United Press Leased Wire.]

Tokio, Jan. 29 .- Count Tanaka, mnister of the imperial household. tondy submitted to the demands of the press and the nobility, and agreed to break off his engagement to marry Miss Ko Kobayashi, a ple-

The newspapers arraigned Tanaka both on account of the difference in rank between him and the girl and because of the great difference in ages, he being 67 and she 20 years old. There is bitter feeling against letters states: alliances between the nobility and the plebians, which has been rather frequent of late.

The count appears heart broken because of the loss of his bride, and the young woman threatens to demand reparaton.

Life 100,000 Years Ago.

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown of Alexander, Me., is large ly from deadly disease. "If it had not asen for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough.'
