BATTLE FOR FULL WIDTH BRIDGE.

The fight for a full width bridge on South Commercial is making splendid headway.

The narrow bridge people are working hard and are perfectly sincere in their desire FOR WHAT THEY CALL ECONOMY.

When that bridge over South Mill Creek was built 16 years ago it took just as hard a fight.

At that time the big interests that oppose all progressive movements HAD THE MAYOR WITH THEM.

They were able to veto everything in the line of progress, and had a big advantage.

At present Salem has a progressive mayor who has taken a square stand WITH THE BUSINESS INTERESTS FOR A WIDE BRIDGE.

Citizens of Salem who want to see no backward steps taken are solidly for a wide bridge.

If they were permitted to vote on the matter they WOULD VOTE FOR A CONCRETE AND STEEL BRIDGE.

Mr. Eldridge, chairman of the bridge committee, has so far not permitted any hearing for a concrete bridge.

A concrete bridge may not be secured at present but it should at least have a chance to be presented?

THE OBSERVANCE OF THE LINCOLN CENTENNIAL.

Three organizations at Salem will honor the memory of Abraham Lincoln Friday, February 12th.

The Young Men's Republican club will hold a banquet at the Armory WITH SPEECHES AND MUSIC.

The Grand Army organization will carry out a program at the First M. E. church.

The German-American society will carry out a beautiful program AT THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The finest patriotic orator in the state has been secured for that occasion—Senator Brownell of Oregon City.

When it comes to doing honor to the hero president and martyr of the Common People, MR. BROWNELL IS THERE WITH THE ORATORY.

The German address of the occasion will be by Rev. Hopf of the German Lutheran church, a German born orator and scholar.

The special interest of the Germans in Abraham Lincoln is the fact that the German-Americans supported Lincoln IN ALL HIS POLITICAL CAREER.

They voted solidly for him in the dark days of 1860, and carried the close and doubtful states for him.

Then they backed him up by enlisting almost solidly in the ranks of the Union army and supported the flag and the constitution.

THE GIRL WHO MAKES A HOME FOR MOTHER.

The woman who makes a home for mother is not enough appreciated in this world.

The Capital Journal wishes to hand a considerable bouquet to the woman, married or single, who MAKES A HOME FOR HER MOTHER.

There are many young women in the world who would make lovely wives for good men who are remaining single TO MAKE A HOME FOR SOME GOOD MOTHER who would otherwise be left alone.

Many of these young women are charming and good-natured and loveable, but they give their BEST TRAITS OF CHARACTER to making a home for mother.

Sometimes father is still alive, but the daughter is always closer to the mother and HER PRESENCE IN THE HOME IS A BLESSING.

The bonds of sympathy between mothers and daughters are the closest ties on earth and they are extended beyond its confines by producing in many instances a LITTLE HEAVEN ON EARTH.

There are women who make these sacrifices with little thought of heroism, but they are heroines nevertheless.

Let us honor the woman who patiently and faithfully MAKES A HOME FOR MOTHER.

Her goodness stands approved and her example saves many a dear mother in her declining years the hardships of life among strangers.

BILL TO CODIFY THE CODE.

The Buchanan bill to revise the Oregon statutes is a good one.

It requires the attorney-general TO DO THE WORK OF COMPILATION.

The state is then to copyright the compilation and sell them at $10 per copy.

The state has in the past farmed out this job to a corporation TO MAKE THE MONEY OUT OF IT.

If the state would do the same thing with its supreme court decisions it would go far to make the state printing office self-sustaining.

Unless It's a Good Store It Will Not Pay to Advertise It!

UNLESS you know a person—unless that person comes into your life in some way—you are not greatly concerned about whether he is good or bad, desirable or objectionable.

It's so with a store. The people who never visit it care nothing about it one way or the other. It doesn't exist—for them. But—when they are persuaded to patronize it—when they come to turn the spot-light of their attention on it—when it comes to have a part in their lives, as some stores must have in all lives—then it's different; then it DOES matter whether it strives to win confidence; it does matter whether or not its price concessions are genuine, dependable.

If it meets all tests that a good store must stand when it is advertised—when it thus invites the critical attention of people—then advertising "makes" the store. If it fails in most of the vital things—if it proves, under the light of publicity, not to be much of a store, THEN ADVERTISING WILL NOT PAY—for it will emphasize shortcomings as well as merits.

For these same reasons it is generally assumed that the store which does not advertise is seeking to avoid close inspection and comparison, and that the store which does is courting them.
