JACKIES GET SORE AT TREASURY DEPARTMENT

[United Press Leased Wire.] Hampton, Va., Feb. 25 .- Indignation meetings are being held to day among the officers and men of the battleship fleet anchored in the reads, over what is deemed the interference of the treasury department with one of the long-established customs of the navy. Recently the treasury department decided that sailors must pay duty on all tringets brought by them after their voyages to foreign ports in total value $100. In order to make their edict effectual, the officials visited Rear-Admiral Sperry, who issued an order that every man of the fleet must lay his curios open to customs inspection. Many boxes were landed before the order was issued, and these will be returned to the senders pending inspection.

The sailors, officers and men are indignant at the insinuation, and it is probable that a clash will resuit when inspection begins,
