

MOTHERS WHO HAVE DAUGHTERS

and Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Winchester, Ind. — "Four doctors told me that they could never make me regular, and that I would eventually have dropsy. I would bleed, and suffer from backache, down-pains, cramps and chills, and I could not sleep nights. My mother wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, and I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking one and one-half bottles of the Compound, I am all right again, and I recommend it to every suffering woman." — MRS. MAY E. B. WINCHESTER, Ind.

Thousands of such letters from girls and mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them have been received by The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

WILD BOARS TREE HUNTERS IN JUNGLES NEAR TAMPIGO

W. A. PARKER, HARRY MOLER AND DR. CONTRIS WOUND A SMALL PIG AND SOON THEREAFTER THEY ARE TREED BY FEROCIOUS HOGS WHICH TRY TO GNAW DOWN TREE

To be treed by a drove of wild hogs is not any too pleasant, out when the hogs try to eat down the tree it becomes real interesting. Reports of such an interesting experience were brought back here by A. W. Parker, Harry Moler and Dr. Contris, who have returned from a ten days' hunting and fishing trip in the vicinity of Tampico.

Disgusted with the constant biting of fish at Tampico, this party of three of Mexico's crack hunters, took a stroll out about 80 kilometers from Tampico, and had all kinds of luck. That is, they had luck seeing game, but Dr. Contris used his gun so frequently that the other two hunters did not have a chance to shoot. They came out into a jungle, about nine miles square, and the hunters undertook to penetrate it, in order to save the time of walking around it, a distance of 20 miles.

Just in the middle of the jungle the party lost its bearings and strolled around in a circle for several hours. Angered at their plight, Dr. Contris spotting a drove of wild pigs, shot one of them. Immediately the drove made an attack and put the gay hunters up a tree. All three went up a small sprout, and the hogs undertook to eat it down. The attack on the tree continued for about an hour, and the hunters could feel the small tree leaning.

About noon the pigs gave it up as a bad job and withdrew. The three hunters climbed down and made their way out of the jungle.

"That Dr. Contris," said W. A. Parker this morning, "ruined the whole thing. What could we do but just climb a tree? One gun will not kill a hundred pigs at one shot, and I had just time enough to fire once, and then fire up that tree. We found lots of deer in the jungle, but every time Dr. Contris would see some good for nothing bird and shoot it, and the deer would chase out of sight. Lots of game in that jungle, but no more wild hogs for me." — Exchange

Prof. H. A. Howell of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold; the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

Manhattan's postoffice receipts amount to $54,370 daily.

Unequaled as a Cure for Croup.

"Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequaled as a cure for croup," says Harry Wilson of Waynetown, Ind. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

of good health should prevent sickness instead of letting themselves get sick and then try to cure it. So long as you keep your liver, bowels and stomach in a healthy and active condition you won't get sick. Ballard's Herbine relieves constipation, inactive liver and all stomach and bowel troubles. We should think, in view of the lack of troubles that come to Switzerland, a lot of other small European states would try their luck as republics.

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Portland, March 1.—Manager Walter McCredie of the Portland team of the Pacific Coast league and two of his players, Ed Kennedy and Otto Johnson, are today speeding toward San Luis Obispo, Cal., where spring training will be indulged in. They will be joined there by the other players.

McCredie says that for the first time since he has been manager, all of his men signed up before the opening of the season. The Portland baseball magnate is jubilant over the situation. He says his team is one of the fastest in the league, and that the nine that wins the pennant, if the Beavers do not capture it themselves, will have to fight with him for it.

FREELAND STORE CHANGES HANDS

Mr. J. L. Freeland of this city has just sold his second-hand store to Mr. J. N. Griffith, formerly of Douglas county, Oregon. The sale was made through the agency of Schultz & Bartlett, at 490 State street.

Mr. Griffith intends to carry a large stock of new as well as second-hand goods and modestly invites a liberal share of patronage. His motto will be "A pleased customer his best advertiser."

Mr. J. L. Freeland also bought through the agency of Schultz & Bartlett a fine fruit farm of 185 acres in Douglas county, Oregon. We predict that with the energy Mr. Freeland usually puts into an undertaking that he will make a great success raising peaches and grapes, for which his farm is so well adapted. His farm also has 60 acres of fine watermelon land which he will make good use of.

The Mill of Circumstances—and YOU

In this city, as everywhere, the Mill of Circumstances is grinding away 24 hours a day—and today it may be grinding YOUR GRIST. It may be turning one of the incidents of this town's daily life into an opportunity for you—into an advantage for you.

When a merchant gets caught in "the Mill," and is pressed for cash, YOU benefit in the enforced sacrifice of some of his stocks—that is, YOU BENEFIT if you keep posted on what is going on at "the Mill" by reading the ads.

A real estate owner gets into "the Mill" and sacrifices some of his property in order to get out again—pays his toll.

The owners of hings—automobiles, securities, businesses, machinery, horses and carriages, typewriters, office fixtures, houses, books, pictures—get into this "Mill of Circumstances," and out of their troubles come your opportunities. They pay the toll.

Incidentally, it's better to watch the ads and to profit by the products of "the Mill" than to get caught in it yourself. Although, if your turn should come, an ad will usually get you out safely.
