It would take a good-sized moral squad to keep the legislature in order if the Capital were moved to Portland. Does that city want any more disorders added to its population?

It has become a custom for every President when he goes out of office to saddle a lot of additional forest reserves upon the people. Yet the people have always treated their Presidents decently.

One representative from Marion county can meet senators and representatives from every county in the state when they reconvene and feel that he has not engaged in knocking any of their local interests. Hal D. Patton voted for the little pet institutions that have got away from Marion county. He did not engage in the noble game of killing off any of the state educational institutions because they happen to be located in Eastern or Southern Oregon. Suffice it to say, you could not drive a Marion county senator to vote against a normal school with a club if it happened to be located at Salem.

FOUR THINGS THAT SALEM MUST FIGHT FOR.

Mountain water, miles of paving, a modern hotel, and the Fair Grounds boulevard are the things that Salem must have. The very existence of this city is threatened, and these steps of progress must be backed by every citizen WHO IS ALIVE TO ITS INTERESTS.

The dead ones, the indifferent ones, those who are asleep and will never awake, are to be left out of the question. That some of the richest citizens in Oregon should maintain a hotel here that is FORTY YEARS BEHIND THE TIMES IN EQUIPMENT, is a shame.

That prominent citizens, state officials and wealthy property owners should fight paving along Court and State streets is a disgrace.

They have no conception of what a great and growing state demands of its Capital City, and which demands must be met in short order IF THIS IS TO REMAIN THE CAPITAL.

Let us all buckle on the armor and fight for our city and back every step to secure the great steps of progress indicated above.

TAX REFORM FROM THE TAXEATERS.

The gamblers are going to reform the gambling business. The drunkards are going to reform the drinking business. THE TAXEATERS ARE TO BRING ABOUT TAX REFORM IN OREGON.

Was ever a state cursed with higher state taxes and higher county taxes?

Professor Young of the State University has published a "PROCEDURE FOR TAX REFORM IN OREGON."

A few years ago when the Willamette Valley Development League tried to initiate a bill to raise half the state taxes by indirect taxation methods ALL THE PROFESSIONAL OFFICE-HOLDING CLASS FOUGHT THE BILL.

It is easy for one who holds a fat position, and has several side drafts on the treasury, to plan for "Tax Reform."

It is a lot of theoretical vaporizing, such as one might expect from those who live off the people, "WHO TOIL NOT, NEITHER DO THEY SPIN."

But it comes from the wrong source. Taxation reform can only come from those who pay, not those who collect.

When the people get so they call it "rent" instead of taxes, and get their noses close on the grindstone, they will "get" reform.

Men like C. K. Henry and other representatives of big property interests have no hesitancy in saying that the city of Portland does not want the State Capital. Well, it has been of no particular advantage to this city but to put a lot of our otherwise enterprising people under the spell of the sleeping sickness that overtakes all dwellers in state capitals and the interior of Africa.

If there were any mistakes the legislature made in the interest of the people they have not yet appeared.

The Eugene Guard wants that city to build a creditable city hall—"worth at least $75,000." It means one such as we have in the city of Salem.

Already we hear of aspirants for Hawley's seat in Congress. It will be a waste of effort if Hawley desires reelection. He is the man for the place, and is doing splendid work for Oregon.—Eugene Register.

"LUCKY" BALDWIN SUITS ALREADY BEGINNING

[United Press Leased Wire.] Los Angeles, Cal., March 8.—Denying that there is such a person as a sister of E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin, who died at Arcadia last Monday, H. A. Unruh, for years confidential secretary to the noted turfman, and now administrator of the estate, today scoffed at the claim of Mrs. Mary Baldwin Morin, of Freeport, Ill., who, according to reports, intends to contest the will of the man she says was her brother.

"I am positive there is no sister of Baldwin living," emphatically declared Unruh, "and what good would it do her if this was so? Under the laws of this state, no one can inherit except the children."

It is considered probable that if Mrs. Morin presses her claim a test will be made of the provision in Baldwin's will, bequeathing $10 to any person who might prove relationship to him.

INSANITY MAY GIVE CLUE TO MURDER

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Francisco, March 8.—While Private Alexander Glass of Troop B, Fifth cavalry, lies raving in the Presidio hospital ward for the insane, the authorities here today are endeavoring to ascertain his connection, if any, with the famous murder of Jennie Boschelter in Paterson, N. J., several years ago. Glass continually refers to the killing of the Paterson factory girl, and from random sentences appeared to have more than a cursory knowledge of the crime which sent several wealthy young men to the New Jersey penitentiary.

Several days ago Glass showed symptoms of insanity and was placed in the ward. He eluded the attendants and plunged through a heavy glass enclosed veranda, but beyond a few cuts was not seriously hurt. He was then confined in a straight jacket and bound to an iron bed with straps but succeeded in gnawing one of his wrists free. When his hands were secured with new thongs Glass became more violent and began raving about Paterson and the murder of Miss Boschelter.

PORTLAND MAN HAS A ROUGH EXPERIENCE

[United Press Leased Wire.] Los Angeles, Cal., March 8.—After being driven out to sea, narrowly escaping drowning and finally being rescued by being dragged a mile through the surf by a parachute, Eugene Savage, an actor, whose family lives at Portland, Or., said today that he felt no ill effects from his perilous experience.

Savage, who takes an amateur's interest in aeronautics, consented to make an ascension at Long Beach yesterday, when he learned that the professional balloonist scheduled to appear had been detained by illness.

A fresh breeze carried the actor balloon a mile to seaward. Then the amateur aeronaut cut loose and dropped into the waves. Hope of his reaching the beach in safety had been abandoned, when the wind changed its course, lifting the parachute out of the water and drove it ashore.

By Our Formula

We produce in Hood's Sarsaparilla a medicine that has an unapproached record of cures of Scrofula, eczema, eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism, anemia, nervousness, that tired feeling, loss of appetite, etc. The combination and proportions of the more than twenty different remedial agents contained in Hood's Sarsaparilla are known only to ourselves, so there can be no substitute. This medicine makes healthy and strong the "Little Soldiers" in your blood,—those corpuscles that fight the disease germs constantly attacking you.

SHOWING EAGLES ARE NOT BUZZARDS

[United Press Leased Wire.] La Porte, Ind., March 8.—Denominated a "buzzard preacher" by his fellow ministers, because he was aided by the local aerie of Eagles, which contributed to his church fund, the Rev. A. H. Hackleman, of Montpelier, a town near here, today is the recipient of a number of contributions to his church building fund from various aeries throughout the state.

A general appeal was issued last night by President Frank E. Hering, for financial aid, and the response was almost immediate. It is believed that the fund will permit the erection of a fine building, which will be a monument to the charity of the Eagles of Indiana.

STREET ORATORS ARRESTED IN SPOKANE

[United Press Leased Wire.] Spokane, March 8.—Because they did not take the police department seriously when it issued orders prohibiting street oratory, 19 members of the Industrial Workers of the World are in cells of the city jail today. The Industrial Workers were surrounded by 3000 listeners on Main avenue late yesterday afternoon, when ten police broke through the crowd and seized the orators. The prisoners offered no resistance and were taken off to jail in the most peaceable manner. For committing smaller offenses, six members of the labor organization are now in the state workhouse, being unable to pay a $100 fine imposed on each of them.

BIG GARAGE WILL SOON BE COMPLETED

The new automobile garage on the corner of Ferry and Liberty streets has been completed as far as the laying of the brick is concerned, and within a few days the flooring and other interior furnishings will be finished. Boedighelmer & White, who are to occupy it, are making preparations for the coming auto season.

MAGISTRATES CLASSIFY JAGS

New York, March 8.—Magistrates in the night courts have classified "jags" which come before them for sentence and the penalty inflicted in proportion to the condition of the prisoner. Magistrate Kernochan today explained that he grouped his cases thus: "Stew," $3; "rouse," $3; "bus," $2; "jag" (without trimmings or noise effects), $2; "piffle," $1. In cases where these psychological conditions occur on one's birthday, at a christening, wedding or wake, the fine is remitted. The penalty for a plain drunk scales as high as $10 or six months in the workhouse.

Negro Lynched in Peace

Dallas, Tex., March 8.—Despite the lynching of Anderson Ellis, who was burned at the stake at Rockwell last night, after being identified as the assailant of Mrs. Arthur McKinney, and the shooting to death of a negro who endeavored to shelter him, the town is quiet today according to reports received here. The reports say that there is no fear of an outbreak.

Speaking of handicaps: What is more tragic than the situation of the sympathetic woman at a funeral who finds she has left her handkerchief at home?

Los Angeles now has a record of eight divorces in fifty-five minutes. Most of the parties, we presume, were in a hurry to catch the next train leaving town.

YOUNG MEN WHO FAVOR FORMING ATHLETIC CLUB

CLOSING THE POOLROOMS MAY HAVE EFFECT OF DRIVING YOUNG MEN OF SALEM TO GETTING ANOTHER PLACE TO SPEND THEIR EVENINGS.

The ordinance making it a misdemeanor for any young man under 21 years to be found in a billiard or pool room or club room where pool or billiards are played, has caused great excitement among the hundreds of young men who frequent those places. The young men are planning to organize a club room of their own. Many of these young men would go to the Y. M. C. A. rooms if they had pool tables there, as has been suggested by some. They do not like the idea of being put under the ban of law, and having what is commonly considered a game of skill placed in the list of forbidden crimes.

Signing Club Rolls. A large number have signed up articles of an organization, as follows: "The undersigned young men of Salem and vicinity hereby agree to form an athletic association to promote clean and healthy amusements and a recreation place for themselves and their associates." The idea is to hire a hall, where they can establish reading rooms, baths and such games as will be allowable under state and city laws. They may decide to add a night school, and some industrial features, if they can get the right kind of an organization. The signors are as follows:

BLIZZARD KILLS 200 AND DESTROYS PROPERTY

Vienna, March 8.—A total of 200 deaths from a blizzard which raged through Europe during the last three days is the conservative estimate placed on the fatalities resulting from the storm, according to reports received here today.

The gales did damage to property estimated at several millions.

The enormous death list is accounted for by the fact that nearly 150 persons were killed in an avalanche in the Austrian Tyrol.

The information that in northern Wisconsin are stored 400,000 pounds of tobacco is likely to make some men regret that they quit smoking so soon.

The explosion of an oil lamp in a mail car at the North Union terminal in Boston today resulted in a fire which destroyed 7000 westbound letters.

Two men were blown to pieces this morning at Wilmington, Delaware, by the explosion of two tons of powder.

President Taft declared today he was planning an extensive Western tour, and would visit the coast this summer.

Joseph Herman, son of a rich New York merchant, was arrested in Chicago today for swindling by means of bogus warehouse receipts.
