CAME TO OREGON FORTY-FOUR YEARS AGO SETTLED IN SALEM

JOHN BERRY AT ONE TIME IN BUSINESS HERE CROSSES THE DIVIDE, CAME TO OREGON IN 1865 WITH J. H. ALBERT AND OTHERS

Died at Dayton, Wash., March 10, 1909, John Berry, aged about 75 years.

Old residents of Salem will recom-ber the advent of a small colony from Iowa in 1865, consisting of John C.
Berry, the patriarch, and his venerable wife, with their daughters, sons and sons-in-law, viz., Mr. and Mrs.
G. W. Gray and family, J. J. Shaw and family, G. G. Van Wagner and family, John Berry and family, Madison Berry and J. H. Albert. Soon after their arrival John Berry, associated with G. W. Gray and J. H. Albert, opened a general merchandise store at the northwest corner of State and Liberty streets, where the Gray block now stands.

About 1870 he moved with his family to a ranch in the Calapooia mountains on account of Mrs. Berry's health, afterwards to Dayton, Wash., where he has since resided continuously, where his wife died some years since and recently also his son J. C. Berry.

Mr. Berry will be remembered as a good citizen, industrious and enterprising, a zealous Mason and general brother.

WILL VISIT COAST IF COUNTRY PAYS BILL

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Washington, D. C., March 12.— Whether President Taft will visit the Pacific coast depends largely upon the action of congress during the approaching special session, according to a member of the cabinet today.
The recent action of congress in cutting off the traveling expenses of the president may mean that Taft will not make the lengthy tour he planned. It was pointed out that congress will not meet again in regular session until fall. This would not prevent congress from enacting the necessary legislation at a special session to provide the president with traveling money, but whether it will be done is another question.

Unless the traveling expenses are allowed it is possible that the president will not visit the coast, much less Alaska. The president is reported to be desirous of visiting as much of the United States as possible.
To enable him to do this, there are many who think the public should pay the bills.

JUDGE MOORES LECTURES THE BOYS

Six young boys were called before Judge Moores this morning, after spending the greater part of the night in jail, to answer to the charge of disturbing the peace and quietude of the firemen in the city hall. The boys explained to Judge Moores that they were invited up in the armory by a friend, and were having a good time, when Officers Pholand and Jory interfered, and the result was they all landed in the city bastille. Judge Moores gave each of the young offenders a severe lecture, calling attention to the law provided by the city making it an offense for boys to be on the streets after 10 o'clock in the evening, unless they have some business matters to attend to, and cautioned them if such an occurrence took place again he would, in compliance with the law, give each one a jail sentence and compel them to work on the streets under the supervision of the street commissioner, for $2 per day until the sentence was served. The boys were appreciative of Judge Moores' leniency, as they were of the opinion that his advice was conservative.

CALIFORNIA MAY LOSE LOCAL OPTION

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Sacramento, March 12.—Through the manipulation of the enemies of the local option bill the measure will not be voted on until next week, thus throwing consideration of that question so close to the end of the session that, even if the bill passes the senate, it will hardly have time to get through the assembly. So, local option will not be a law this year unless the unexpected happens.

COUNT ZEPPELIN MAKES NEW RECORD

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Friedrichshafen, March 12.—Count Zeppelin today made a new record for dirigible balloons by ascending to a height of 3000 feet. The ship was maneuvered easily at the greatest altitude yet obtained by steerable balloons.

Your Hair is Worth It Afraid to use hair preparations? Don't know exactly what to do?
Then why not consult your doctor? Isn't your hair worth it?
Ask him if he endorses Ayer's Hair Vigor for falling hair, dandruff, a hair tonic and dressing. Have confidence in his advice. Follow it. He knows.

ROBBED PRISONERS IN THE JAIL

Alameda, Cal., March 12.—When Gus Jansen left the local bastille early today following his release with a motley array of drunks and others rescued during the night from "demon rum," none of the jail turnkeys noticed an added corpulency to his jaded person. Neither did George Joest and William J. Burns, his fellow prisoners.

Later when Joest and Burns were about to be released from durance ville, they discovered that their clothing was missing.

"Say, ho," called out Joest to a passing trusty, "some guy's pinched me clo'es. Dis is pretty bum treatment, ter bring a feller here an' den swipe de only rags he owns."

Burns joined his wallings to those of Joest and both loudly called on the police to find the man who entered their cast-iron room and robbed them.

Both men spent the morning in bed until clothing suitable to their proportions could be found for them.
It is surmised that Jensen departed with the raiment.

BETTER OFF WHERE HE WAS

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Louisville, Ky., March 12.—Mrs.
Ada Gorman Magness, daughter of the late Senator Gorman of Maryland, today obtained the release of her husband from a United States naval prison.

Magness was serving a year's sentence for desertion from the navy.
He has served three months of the sentence.

Magness was a musician in the navy when he met Miss Gorman. He deserted the service to marry her and since his conviction she has been indefatigable in her efforts to obtain his release.

LOYAL STUDENTS ACCOMPANY LEADER

More than thirty Willamette students accompanied Clark Belknap, the winner of the local oratorical contest this year, to Corvallis this morning, where tonight the intercollegiate contest will be held. President Fletcher Homan was also in the party.
Belknap was given an unanimous decision on his oration entitled "Aim of Empire" at the university a few weeks ago, and since then has improved on it, and Willamette is very confidential of winning in tonight's contest, which is final, there being no inter-state try-out in this contest.

DIAPESIN WILL CURE YOU OF STOMACH TROUBLES

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents and will thoroughly cure the worst case of dyspepsia, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve a sour stomach or indigestion in five minutes. Get a case now and eat one Triangule after your next meal. They are harmless and taste like candy, though each contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a hearty, healthy appetite; but, what will please you most is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach prescription, too, if you ever have indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery, and eat just one Triangule of Diapepsin.

There are plenty of people in this world to whom Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" sound like "The Dead March from Saul."
