

LEUPP HAS WIT
IF NOTHING ELSE

Commissioner Leupp was placed in charge of the land office by President Roosevelt to make a general cleaning up. And he has done so. He has made more radical changes in the administration of Indian affairs than were ever before made in the history of the bureau.

And Roosevelt stood behind him at every step. The storm of opposition that arose against Leupp, both from the politicians who had for years regarded the Indian office as their legitimate pork barrel, and from the various "Indian betterment" societies of New England, who were disappointed in Leupp because they had expected that he would put their fads into operation, did not move Roosevelt. Once, when criticism had been most bitter, he said to Leupp, "If they would bring affidavits to me by the carload supporting a petition to turn you out, I would throw them down into the fire and tell you to go ahead."

If Leupp can get that kind of backing from President Taft he will stay on a while longer.

Francis Leupp, Indian commissioner and member of the "Iennis cab-net," was standing by when the retiring president dashed off the memorandum.

"What do you think of that, Leupp?" chuckled Mr. Roosevelt, handing the sheet over to his friend. "Well, Mr. President, it reminds me of a story," replied Leupp. "A boy whose father had been ill came to school late one morning. His teacher, guessing the reason, inquired about the father's condition. 'He died last night,' sobbed the boy. 'Oh, I'm so sorry,' replied the teacher. 'What were his last words?' 'He didn't have none,' the boy responded. 'Ma was there all the time.'"

LA GRANDE MUST HOLD

CHARTER ELECTION

It will be necessary for the city of La Grande to hold another election to vote on the adoption of a charter in order to make legal the bond issue of $160,000 for the Beaver Creek water supply, says the La Grande Star. Mr. W. A. Dutch, secretary of the American Light & Water Company, of Kansas City, arrived in La Grande yesterday and at a special meeting of the councilmen yesterday evening he explained a defect in the proceedings as passed upon by the bond attorneys. The point is a technical one, and the decision is that the charter recently adopted is called a "charter amendment," whereas it should be designated a "charter" and the vote on the same should have been ordered upon a petition coming from the people, and not by an ordinance adopted by the council. While the point seems to be very technical, it is the decision of the light and water company's attorney, and must be accepted. It is possible that the proceedings might be held as valid by the supreme court, but it would require a great deal of time to reach a decision before that tribunal, and the council decided that the quickest way out is to order another election.

Recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold; the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.
