Like Sambo's Funny Noises.

John Collock, an attorney of Portland, was in the city today and while visiting at the State Capitol related an amusing April fool incident. Mr. Collock told of an aged gentleman in Portland walking along the street early this morning when a milk boy hailed him and casually informed him that he had lost his handkerchief. The old gentleman, unthinkingly turned about and began looking for his lost property, when the boy yelled "This is the first of April, Mister." The best part of the joke was, however, the April fool man chanced to look in the gutter along the sidewalk for his handkerchief, and there, lying in plain sight, was a $5 gold-piece, which he picked up and meandered on his way.

INDIANS DIG UP THEIR BURIED COIN

[United Press Lensed Wire.]
Spokane, Wash., April 1.—Corbett Lawyers, a Nez Perce Indian graduate from Carlisle, who is to head the Indian banking institution at Nez Perce, Idaho, is to study banking in the Old National Bank, Spokane. Lawyers is a finely educated Indian. He has been private secretary to Superintendent Lipps at the agency. Many miserly tribesmen, heretofore suspicious of banks, are anxious to get stock in the new bank and about $50,000 is already in sight. An old Indian squaw bought stock the other day with $3,000 in gold, which had been buried so long that the dirt made the figures and inscriptions illegible. It is believed fortunes are buried on the reservation and the secret of the hiding places died with the old tribesmen.

TWO-CENT FARES EARN THE MONEY

Jefferson City, Mo., April 1.—Two-cent fares have earned more money for the railroads than the three-cent fares, according to a statement made by Attorney-General Elliot Major, of Missouri, who is on record today as favoring the lower figure. Major declared that if the railroads carried out their announced plan of putting into effect April 10 the three-cent fare, the Missouri legislature would receive on April 11 a bill compelling the corporations to publish itemized statements of their receipts. Major claims the reports of the roads today give larger profits than under the old rate by several hundred dollars. These are the gains over the old rates, as claimed by Major.

MEXICO FACES.

paper attempts to make light of the situation by declaring that it is nothing but a drunken brawl, the fact of its admission of trouble is considered confirmation of the more serious reports. El Correa, the other morning daily at Chihuahua, declares today that conditions are as bad as reported and asserts positively that the war was caused by excessive taxes.

Gardner Case Goes to Jury.

San Francisco, April 1.—Eugene Gardner, the young Kentuckian charged with the murder of Joe Cordova, a negro mate on the whaler Bowhead, last August, while the vessel was in the South Seas, will see his case go to the jury in the United States circuit court tomorrow morning. Gardner declares that he will be satisfied with nothing less than an acquittal. He claims that he was attacked by the negro and, after being beaten severely, struck him in self-defense.
