

By MISS MOLLIE RUNCORN

The members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church gave a reception to Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Monday afternoon. Miss Moreland has been abroad seven years, and is returning to her home in Oregon. She is a native of Oregon, and has been in the various churches of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. She is a native of Oregon, and has been in the various churches of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. She is a native of Oregon, and has been in the various churches of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The many friends of Miss Nellie Kimball, who is leaving Salem, going today to Oregon City to make her home. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Kimball, well known residents, and is popular with young folks here. She has been with the Portland Railroad and Power Company, as a stenographer to Rollin K. Page for the past year, and will now be employed in the County Recorder's office in Oregon City. She leaves many friends here, but will undoubtedly find many new ones in her new location.

Miss Elizabeth Keeton and Mr. and Mrs. Schreiber were quietly married in Portland last Saturday afternoon. The wedding was not a large affair, but owing to the unexpected call of Mr. Schreiber to his position in Sacramento, the immediate marriage was deemed wise. Mrs. Schreiber is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Keeton, and is one of the most popular young women of the Capital City. Mr. Schreiber has resided in Portland about three years, coming here last Saturday night on their way to Sacramento, where they will reside.

Miss Aurelia Beck and Mr. Alvin Powers were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Daisy Lally will entertain the ladies of the club at her home on Court street, Wednesday, April 7.

Miss Copeland's dancing class has invited out to an Easter dancing party to be given in the Armory, Saturday evening, April 10, for which an especially attractive program has been arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. C. Wimmer celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home on East State street, Tuesday. A few friends and members of their family, representing four generations, were present. They were: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bigham, their children, Miss Dade and Jacob Bigham, and Mrs. Lottie Durnell, and two children, Lavina and Lyle, of Oregon City; Mr. H. Hayward and daughter, Etta, and Ross Wimer, Miss Nettie Wimer and Harry Wimer of Salem.

Mrs. Isaac Manning and daughter Ruth are stopping in Los Angeles, Cal., on their way home from South America, and are expected to arrive here shortly. They will remain here, and in Portland until Mr. Manning, who is now the American consul to Colombia, arrives, which will be about May 1st, and from here will go to Venezuela, where Mr. Manning will hold a similar position.

Mrs. J. J. Murphy and daughter, Mrs. Clark, of Portland, are expected home shortly from Cuba, where they have been spending several months.

The members of the Odd Fellows lodge entertained with a banquet Wednesday evening for the ladies of the Rebecca lodge. A program was given in connection.

The second membership contest entertainment given by Silver Bell Circle of the Women of the Woodcraft was held in their hall last night, and was in charge of the contesting side, headed by Mrs. A. A. Miller. A splendid program was given and was greatly appreciated by the large number of friends, members of the Woodmen of the World and Women of the Woodcraft who were present. The side led by Mrs. A. L. Darling gave its entertainment last week, and the one giving the best is to be banqueted on April 30, but as yet no decision has been reached. The program given last night was as follows:

Violin Solo—Miss Vercler.
"Troubles"—Rutline and Morgan.
Vocal Solo—Miss Louise Cronise.
Comic Sketch by the Peak Sisters.
Highland Fling—Ella McMinn.
Music—By Mrs. Tarpley and Miss Turner.

The ladies of the local lodge will give a reception to Mrs. Van Orsdall, head guardian neighbor of the grand lodge, and a number of other women prominent in the order in their hall, next Friday afternoon.

SIDEWALK TO THE FAIRMOUNT HILL

The street department has served notice on all property owners on Cross street and Lincoln street that the walks must be constructed on that street within 30 days, or by the first of May. That will mean a fine walk from the end of the Yew Park car line to the top of Fairmount Hill, and will be the most appreciated improvement ever made in South Salem. The city attorney has the order prepared to make the cost of walks a lien against the property of all who do not build within that time. Street Commissioner Pooler deserves credit or pushing this matter to completion, and City Attorney Keyes will do his part when it becomes necessary.

THE GINGERBREAD MAN AND GINGERY CHORUS

The trend of popular opinion seems to be a desire to see something more tangible and something more on the order of the old style of entertainment that what has been in vogue the past few years. In fact, the desire seems to be more for a good clever story and a plot of merit than the usual frothy musical comedy of entertainment; hence the Waltz Dream, The Merry Widow and the Gingerbread Man, and one commences to realize that comic opera more than musical comedy of the so-called comedies with music are hardly satisfying.

The Gingerbread Man is of the class that appeals to one mentally as much as it does to entertainment for the time being, with a clever plot, unctious comedy, and melodies that appeal to the ear. It pleases an intelligent class of theatre goers.

It is called a fantasy, but the characters are all logical and ones that we can readily associate with those that good authors have presented to us from time to time. The story of the piece is delightfully couched in good and entertaining dialogue, the epigrams are numerous and well formed, and the humor of a delightful turn, helped along with good lyrics and tunes that have an undeniable and pleasant lilt, and that cannot fail to please the most exacting, the musically cultured or the mere seekers of entertainment. At the Grand Opera House Friday, April 9.
