

GLAD TO WELCOME J. J. DALRYMPLE BACK.

After being confined at a sanitarium for two months J. J. Dalrymple, the pioneer Salem merchant, is glad to be back among the old familiar circles at Salem. Mr. Dalrymple was for many years the leading authority on drygoods in this city, having grown up to the business in New England. For some years he has been a retired merchant. The death of his wife last fall was a terrible blow to him, and he suffered a severe collapse from the effects of which he has been taking some time to recover, but is now happy to be in his old haunts. He is one of the charter members of the Ilihee club and a man very much liked for his many social qualities and general good judgment.

A Reliable Remedy CATARRH

It quickly absorbed. Stops Relief at Once. It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts., at Druggists or by mail. In liquid form, 75 cents. Ely Brothers, 66 Warren Street, New York.

WILL ARREST ALL AUTO SCORCHERS

New York, April 3.—Henry Clews, the banker, and a number of wealthy men of this city have incorporated the National Highway Protective Society, the object of which will be to stop reckless automobilists and, by policing the roads and streets, prevent the practice of "scorching," which has already cost the lives of a great many men, women and children. The owners and the drivers of fast cars will be prosecuted, this being felt to be the most effective way to reach the speed maniacs.

The organization will be extended, and branches will be formed throughout the country.

DIED SUDDENLY.
F. B. West died very suddenly at his farm home Monday morning. He had been sitting up during the night with his father-in-law, Mr. Duncan, who is ill. At daylight he started to the barn, but fell before reaching there. He was carried into the house, when he remarked that something had broken in his head, and he then passed quietly away, apparently without suffering. He leaves a wife, three daughters and two sons. Fort Boise West was born at Fort Boise, Idaho, when that territory was part of Oregon, and his entire life was passed in this state. At the time of his death he was aged 57 years.—Jefferson Review.

The late worm is missed by the early bird.

Rheumatism.
More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed, and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. The medicines usually given internally for rheumatism are poisonous or very strong medicines. They are worse than useless in cases of chronic and muscular rheumatism. For sale by all good druggists.

Problem: Which is better, to always owe a debt or cheat the creditor out of it?

Object to Strong Medicines.
Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by all good druggists.

Best Treatment for Colds.
"Most ordinary colds will yield to the simplest treatment," says the Chicago Tribune, "moderate laxatives, hot foot baths, a free perspiration and an avoidance of exposure to cold and wet after treatment." While this treatment is simple, it requires considerable trouble, and the one adopting it must remain in doors for a day or two, or a fresh cold is almost sure to be contracted, and in many instances pneumonia follows. Is it not better to pin your faith to an old reliable preparation like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that is famous for its cures of colds and can always be depended upon? For sale by all good druggists.

Now maybe Congress will be again permitted to do its allotted part in governing.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. For sale by J. C. Perry.
