Sick Headache

You probably think it's caused by something you've eaten. Of course it is—but if your stomach, liver and bowels were O. K. you could eat anything that others eat and never have an uncomfortable moment.

You can cure the headache and the indigestion that caused it by putting your liver in shape. Lazy liver is at the bottom of nine-tenths of human ills. Put the liver right and constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, skin troubles—all ailments of the stomach, bowels and kidneys are bound to be cured.

Prove it—take an NR tablet tonight and you'll feel better in the morning. Better than pills for liver ills—never gripe nor sicken, always and absolutely effective.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LINSKOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB.

April 11th, 1909.

Easter Lesson. I Cor. xv:12-28. Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. I Cor. xv:20.

Verses 12-13—Does the doctrine of the resurrection of the body, rest upon revelation or upon reason?

Providing the soul is immortal is it, or not, of material importance whether the body is raised or not? If there is no resurrection of the dead, it follows as Paul here states, that Christ is not risen; but is the converse true, that if Christ is risen then all human beings will necessarily be resurrected?

It seems that some in Corinth denied the resurrection of the dead in the sense that there is no life after death, now if that were true, then how much would there be left of Christianity?

What is the process of reasoning that demonstrates the fact of immortality?

What is the scriptures proof of life after death? Can you mention a single nation or tribe of the past, or at the present, which has not believed in immortality in some shape?

Verses 14-17.—If there is no resurrection of the dead, how would that make their preaching vain, make our faith vain, and make them false witnesses?

Verses 18-19.—How is it that all men instinctively believe in the immortality of their departed friends, and expect to meet them again?

It was doubtless true in Paul's day that if there was no immortality Christians were of all men most miserable, because, they were then despised, imprisoned and put to death; but is the same true today? Is not Christ's religion now a grand thing for this world, even if death did end all.

Verse 20.—What is the chief evidence of the truth of Christianity?

What is the proof that Jesus did rise from the dead? (See Matt. xxvi: 16-18; Mark xvi:14; Luke xxiv:36-38; John xx:4,5,14,26; xxi:4; Acts i:3,13,30,31; I Cor. xv:3-8, et seq.)

Is the fact of the resurrection of Jesus to be proved by evidence, like any other fact, and is there any other historic fact better attested?

Why was it, when Jesus was crucified that His disciples were a dispirited band, having lost heart, and going back to their former occupation, and what was it afterwards that put new life in them, and made them the most courageous that ever lived? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the Club.)

What became the prominent theme of their preaching?

Is it creditable that such noble men, who afterward laid down their lives for the truth, would testify that they had seen and talked with Jesus after his death, if they had not so seen him?

Verse 21-22.—Would there have been natural death if there had been no sin?

Would there have been any resurrection of the dead, if Jesus had not been resurrected?

Verses 23-25.—Was Christ the first man to rise from the dead?

When will the general resurrection be?

Will Christ finally abolish death and destroy sin?

Has God put all the forces of nature under the control of Jesus?
