Given Reception Last Night—
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. DeVoe returned from a short honeymoon trip north Sunday night, and were given a reception by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. F. G. DeVoe, at her home, corner of Seventeenth and Chemeketa streets. She was assisted by Mrs. S. White. Sixteen relatives and friends were present. Mrs. DeVoe was formerly Miss Pearl Schumaker. They will make their home at the corner of Seventeenth and Chemeketa streets.

Annual Class Play—
There has been considerable controversy indulged in by the pupils of the high school regarding the place in which to hold the annual class play this season. The school board has given orders that the high school must not go outside of the high school building to hold the performance unless they hold it under some other name than a high school performance. It is thought, however, the pupils will decide to have the play in the Grand opera house under some other name than the high school.

Supreme Court Docket—
The following cases, appealed from Marion county, will be argued in the supreme court shortly, having been included in the docket for the March term: James Still, appellant, vs. Wm. N. Biringham, et al., respondents; E. B. Tongue, appellant, vs. State Board of Agriculture, respondent; Ames Higgins Co., appellants, vs. L. T. Torwick, respondent; Oil-schlager Estate, Theo. M. Murray, deceased, Oscar Meullhaupt, appellant, vs. the German Evangelical Reformed Bethany church of Salem, respondents; J. W. Meyer, respondent, vs. T. A. Livesley & Co., appellants; Hattie E. Mansfield, appellant, vs. J. L. Hill, et al., respondents; B. H. White, respondent, vs. W. C. Price, appellant.

Newspaper Man Weds—
Horace Burnett, city editor of the Eugene Daily Guard, was married at Eugene Wednesday evening last to Miss Josephine Jensen. Which goes to show that a wide-awake newspaper man when allowed to follow the bent of his inclinations will do the right thing every time. It is public sentiment and outside influence that is responsible for every bad thing a newspaper man does, for he is naturally a genial, honest and clever gentleman. Good boy, Horace.

Three Glory Tickets—
The following marriage licenses were issued today by County Clerk Allen Richard M. Burch, of Portland, aged 36, and Eva Smith, of Salem, aged 27; I. Spong, aged 22, and Sarah A. Krugme'er, aged 19, of Salem; Edward F. Kelly, of Marion, aged 18, and Adaline Enos, of Salem, aged 18.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Charles A. Wilson and little son, Julius Robert, of Portland, are the guests of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schultz.

Mrs. W. B. Turner, of McMinville, went to Oregon City this morning, to be the guest of her brother, R. L. Holman, after visiting her daughter, Miss Mildred Turner and cousin, Judge George H. Burnett, here.

Mrs. J. D. McCully, of Hood River, is the guest of E. C. and Hal D. Patton.

Miss Blanche Liston, of Portland, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Liston.

Father Schmitt, O. P., of Portland, assisted Father Moore with the Easter services at St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Mrs. Richard Brady is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hirsch, at Hotel Willamette. She and her husband have been traveling through the Southern and Middle West States for the past several months.

Clyde Goodrich, day clerk at the Hotel Willamette, has returned from a short visit with his mother at Baker City. Clyde says, although mighty glad to see his old home again, he was tickled to death to get back where things are green, and out of the snow and cold at Baker City.

Mrs. Sam Worrell, of Albany, spent Easter Sunday with Mrs. C. E. Knowland.

Miss Hazel Cramer has left for Weiser, Idaho, to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Smyth.

Clerk of the Supreme Court Moreland returned from a short business visit in Hood River. Mr. Moreland states that the peach blossoms in Hood River are not out as far as they are in Salem, although that section of the country is going to have a bump or crop.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Cropan, of Portland, are in the city visiting their many friends. They will leave shortly for Los Angeles to spend the summer with relatives of Mrs. Cropan.

Carl Hopf, one of Corvallis' most prosperous merchants, was in the city Sunday shaking hands with old friends. Ed. Horgan, also of Corvallis, accompanied Mr. Hopf. Mr. Horgan is well-known in Salem, having practiced law here for many years.

Peter Shipley, of Harrisburg, Or., was in the city today looking after business matters.

Mrs. James Walton and little son, James, Jr., of Tillamook, will spend a month with Mrs. Walton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fawk.

J. H. McEldowney and daughter, Miss Edna, left for Portland this morning, after making a short visit to Judge and Mrs. Robert Eakin. Their home is in Chicago, and they have been making a trip through the South and West.

The following Salem people were in Portland Sunday: Miss Ray Smith, Miss Florain Hatch, James Allen, Secretary of Governor McArthur, Miss Bessie Cooper, Mrs. Peter Pugh, Mrs. Florence Irwin.

Miss Neau West, Miss Cavers and Miss Matilda Eckerlen spent Sunday on the L. K. Page ranch.

Attorney-General A. M. Crawford and wife spent Easter in Albany.

DIED.

LA BARE—At the family home on the Garden Road, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, April 11, 1909, Mrs. Anna LaBare, aged 65 years.

The funeral will be held from the home at 2 o'clock p. m. tomorrow. Interment in the Lee Mission cemetery.
