

SMILES.

A miner of Southern Nevada has reached San Bernardino, California, who has not been out of the desert for 15 years. He never heard of Roosevelt. After all, the desert does hold compensations and appeals to one.

As most weddings are "quiet" it looks to the horse editor that the expression "a quiet wedding" means that it isn't of the shotgun variety, and hence if not a slam, is at least a suggestion.

Anyway, those congressmen ought to have known better than to monkey with the history and garfers of the American women.

The doctors say there is danger in kissing blonde women. Wonder if the learned savants ever experimented with a brunette or a brown or a red headed girl.

Now that Taft has sat down on Heney, the latter may consider himself "squashed."

"Old Man Bennett," of the Irrigation Irrigator, has opinions of his own, and expresses them. Just where "he is at," politically, would be hard to guess, for he expresses disapproval of both of our senators, Jonathan and George.

Now that the sale of opium has been prohibited, maybe there will not be so many pipe dreams among the coast "promoters."

Senator Beverage says "read the Bible." This is undoubtedly good advice, but if he has practiced it, he never got inoculated with its doctrines. As Saxe says, "The simple fact is. His preaching isn't sanctioned by his practice."

When the country newspapers allow and Eastern syndicate to write these editorials, the liberty of the masses is indeed in danger. The great dailies wield a powerful influence, not always for good, but the editorial opinion of the country press is the foundation on which the liberty of the American people depends. This is not a "smile," is a serious and indisputable fact.

STORK TEMPORARILY SIDETRACKED

[United Press Leased Wire.]
The Hague, April 13.—In order to allay fears which have arisen from unauthorized rumors, it was announced today that Queen Wilhelmina does not expect the arrival of her heir for several weeks. The queen's health is now in excellent condition.

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys, and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints causing rheumatism. For sale by J. C. Perry.
