

TACOMA WOMAN
BURNED TO DEATH

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tacoma, Wash., April 14.—Mrs. J. Bridges, aged 32, was burned to death last night in her home, 611 South Yakima avenue, when the cover of the bed in which she was lying caught fire, presumably from an overturned lamp. The tragedy followed a day of drunken revelry, in which both she and her husband engaged.

Bridges is being held in jail pending an investigation. He says that he was not in the house at the time the woman met death, but the story told by him last night was so incoherent that the police deemed it advisable to hold him until the affair is thoroughly investigated.

JOSEPH ADOLPH
SUCCEEDS WIPRUT

Henry Wiprut, who started the cigar business at the corner of State and Commercial streets 11 years ago, has sold out to Joseph Adolph, young son of the late Samuel Adolph, who took possession this morning, and will hereafter be the proprietor of this popular establishment. It will be known as the Adolph Cigar Store. Wiprut will take a short rest before deciding what he will go into, but will not remain along out of business. He is planning a trip to San Francisco and other cities. He began in a small way, and his success shows what fortunes can be made at Salem. Mr. Adolph has been connected with the business of Rostein & Greenbaum, buying and selling stocks of goods in Salem over the state, in which he has been very successful. He will maintain the high quality of goods and popular service at the well known corner, and is to be congratulated on this good investment.

BIG AUTO RUNS
OFF THE BRIDGE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Everett, Wash., April 14.—Mrs. F. Wright, of Everett, is today suffering from severe cuts on the neck as the result of an automobile accident yesterday in which the five persons in the car narrowly escaped death. The big touring machine was being driven by a woman who was learning the art, and who, at a critical moment, neglected to turn the steering wheel, sending the automobile plunging over a bridge. After falling a distance of 15 feet, the car turned over and slid down a 20-foot embankment. The occupants, Mrs. Herbert Clough, who was at the wheel, her husband and little daughter, Mrs. F. H. Wright and an automobile agent, were thrown in every direction, but

WANT ROOSEVELT
TO LET BEASTS ALONE

[United Press Leased Wire.]

Des Moines, Ia., April 14.—If Colonel Roosevelt acts on the plea contained in a petition signed by 750 Des Moines school children, and forwarded to him, he may walk right in, turn round, and walk right out of the jungles without bagging any game. While it is highly improbable that the former president will forego the exciting pleasure of late in the game of mixing it up with the beasts, the appeal of the children, nevertheless is pathetic and earnest. In asking him to change his mind and return home, the pupils of the local schools describe how sinful it is to disturb the peace of the jungles and shoot down defenseless animals that are in the midst of their own business. They hope that Colonel Roosevelt will be deeply impressed with the appeal anyway.
