GOOD BALL NEXT SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Next Sunday afternoon there will be the hottest baseball scramble ever pulled off in Salem when the Salem Independents and the team under the management and captainship of Joe Fay of Portland come together on the Asylum Avenue ball park grounds. This bout is scheduled for nine rounds, but the limit is not put on and there will be a finish only when one team gets the double cross.

Salem fans will remember Joe Fay, the little streak of lightning who played shortstop for the old Valley league team in this city several years ago, and who has played with the Portland Pacific Coasters and been a ball tosser of prominence all over the western country. Fay did the selecting of his team from some of the best men in Portland. Tim Concannon, formerly pitcher for the Woodburn team in the Tri-City league, and Arcelle Perrot and Will Perrot are on his list, also several other speedy ball players who know just how baseball is played and have a wonderful ability for executing it.

The prospects of being compelled to run for their lives does not frighten the managers of the local team, however, and Heyner and Jerman are strong in their belief that with Ches Bowen, the southpaw, in the center they can whip Joe Fay's aggregation and not exert themselves, either. With the assistance of Bowen, who has been throwing ball splendidly so far this year, the Salem Independents should have a hard team to trounce. The infield will be composed of Fred Carey, the human moving picture; Roberts, Kaylor and Humphreys. Bowen in the box and Fred Heyner behind home plate. In the outfield Arca Jerman, "Mistah Johnsing," the clever welder of the big stick, and "Dutch" Ott, the independent's Marathon runner. The fielding ability of this bunch of young ball players is well known to Salemites, but they have not been allowed to turn loose at the bat by their managers owing to there being no necessity for it, but Sunday Heyner and Jerman intend to give them opportunities to exercise their batting eye and muscle and if possible hit Tim Concannon all over the premises.

A STRENUOUS EFFORT TO GET HER CONFESSION

[United Press Leased Wire.] SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—In company with Detective Steven Bunner of the local police force, O. H. Arnold, alleged to have swindled Mrs. Lillian Ross of this city out of jewels valued at $6,000, arrived early today.

The departure of the detective and his prisoner from Los Angeles last night assumed the nature of a pursuit when Attorney Appel, counsel for Arnold, attempted to serve a writ of habeas corpus. Bunner, with Arnold in custody, secured an automobile and made a wild dash to San Fernando, 20 miles distant, where the train for San Francisco was boarded.

Mrs. Ross, who is the wife of T. Patterson Ross, an architect of this city, is said to have been determined to become a Hindoo priestess. With this end in view she is said to have taken a course of instruction in occult science, mysticism and clairvoyance, under Arnold and Kamara Chadura, Swami, an astrologer.

It is alleged that Mrs. Ross was convinced that in order to become a full-fledged priestess it was incumbent upon her to make a signed statement and confession of her past. According to the statement of Arnold's attorney the object of Mrs. Ross' suit is to regain possession of this strange document. The suit filed in Los Angeles charged Arnold with grand larceny, alleging that he secured Mrs. Ross' jewels while he was her instructor in the occult sciences.

TEXANS WANT TO KNOW MARS

[United Press Leased Wire.] BOSTON, Mass., April 27.—Texans offering to raise $10,000,000 to be expended in experimenting with signals in an attempt to communicate with Mars, were notified today by William Henry Pickering, professor of astronomy at Harvard university, that such an immense sum would not be required. The professor's message was in reply to a telegram sent him by the Star and Telegram, newspapers at Fort Worth.

Professor Pickering advised the Texans to establish an observatory of the highest possible efficiency in a favorable location in western Texas, where he and other eminent scientists could conduct extended observations of Mars. This, he said, could be done for a much smaller sum than that offered.

WILBUR WRIGHT'S MACHINE FLIES

[United Press Leased Wire.] Rome, April 27.—The syndicate which purchased the Italian rights to Wilbur Wright's aeroplane is today making preparations for the construction of military and other aircraft. The price paid for the valuable rights is said to be $200,000.

Aeroplane is fast becoming a popular craze among wealthy Italians and Wright is in receipt of many communications from prominent Italian leaders who are asking for a trip in his big ship. A successful flight was made yesterday, the aeroplane rising from the ground by the force of its own propellers without the assistance of a hoisting apparatus.

THE RAIN MADE EVERYBODY GLAD

A more opportune rainfall could not be realized by the Marion county farmers, whose farming land and vegetable gardens were becoming dangerously dry and badly in need of the drenching rain which well the greater part of yesterday and last night.

The tender spring wheat and oats which are beginning to take on the appearance of a bumper crop in spite of the dry weather lately, will get above the ground in fine shape now and it is predicted by the farmers the entire valley will do some great harvesting the coming summer.

The condition of the ground now assures something handsome in the line of potatoes also, and before planting season has gone by the spud fields will be of much greater acreage this season than they were last year owing to the brilliant future of the market and the extra large shortage all over the western country during the past winter.

According to reports from up the valley the rainfall has been somewhat heavier than it has been so far in this vicinity, and it arrived about in time, as the grain was beginning to change color and the ground was drying out.

The fruit men report that the rain did no harm to the many tender blossoms and tended to benefit them. The blooms are out sufficiently now to protect themselves unless a killing frost comes along, which is not possible this season because the time has expired.

ANOTHER LINEMAN GOT THE JUICE

Seattle, Wash., April 27.—Receiving a charge of 2300 volts of electricity while working at the top of a 40-foot pole, H. A. Ham, a lineman, is dead today from the shock. Ham, with a fellow workman, was connecting up high voltage wires for the Seattle Electric Company last evening and had one wire in each hand when the accident occurred and the entire voltage shot through his body. He was lowered to the ground by means of ropes and hurried to a hospital, but died before medical aid could be administered.

Spasms St. Vitus' Dance

Many persons who suffered untold agonies from epilepsy, fits, spasms, and St. Vitus' Dance are today well. The strengthening influence of Dr. Miles' Nervine upon the shattered nerves having restored them to perfect health.

"I endured agony that words cannot express from St. Vitus' dance which followed a very severe spell of rheumatism. I doctored with a physician, but the more I took of his medicine the worse I got. My mother's devotion saved me. After she had become almost heart-broken, as well as physically exhausted from constant care, she procured a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. From the first dose to the last a continual change for the better was noticeable, and when I had taken eleven bottles I was well, and in robust health."

North Manchester, Indiana.

"Our little boy Harry, had spasms for three years, and although we doctored with many physicians, he continued to grow worse until he had ten spasms in one week. About that time our attention was called to Dr. Miles' Nervine. We began giving it to him. His improvement seemed slow, but when he had finished the fourth bottle the spasms had disappeared, and have not been seen now for years. We shall always recommend Dr. Miles' Nervine."

MRS. BELLE M. TINDALE, Hastings, Neb. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit it. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
