WE'VE been doing police duty in Salem for 30 years guarding the public's interest in merchandising, and in that time this store has been known as the leader in styles and values. Merchandising is no experiment with us. This store is Willamette Valley's largest and best wearing apparel emporium for men, women and children, and our prices are even less for Good Goods than you have been paying for inferior grades elsewhere. Ask your neighbor who sells the best goods at lowest prices? Every day we hear it said: "When one wants Good Goods you have to go to Meyers"

Had Has Left U—
"Dad" Gier has left the city and gone to California for a visit. It has been some time since "Dad" has taken a little jaunt over the country, but owing to the many wireless stations along the coast and some first-class sleuth agencies located in most every city, it is not probable he will get lost in the shuffle.

Two Marriage Licenses—
Two more marriage licenses were issued this morning by County Clerk Allen, one to Elmer O. Beardsley, aged 21, of Salem, and Ada B. Loomer, aged 18, of Salem, and one to Robert L. Oswald age 4 and Alice A. Rucker, aged 21, both of Salem.

Another Addition—
A plat has been filed with the county clerk creating a new addition to Salem, called Salem Heights, located south of this city, near the City View cemetery. McGilchrist Bros. are the original christeners of the new addition, and their pretty home stands in one corner of the plat.

The Shepherd of the Hills—
"The Shepherd of the Hills" was at the Grand last night. Miss Laura Helmreich was dainty, graceful and an actress. One or two others did some excellent work, but, as for the balance, the farther they go back in the hills, and the longer they stay there, the less offensive they will be to people who like a good play. The shepherd should stick to his hills.

Ladies' Attention—
Nothing surpasses oil paintings for beautifying the home. A fine display at L. U. Joesse's.

Baseball, Baseball, Baseball—
Willamette field—tomorrow, at 2:30

Have you seen those beautiful oil paintings at L. U. Joesse's; if not call at once, as they are going fast.
