VAST TRACTS
 The chance would be too great on a speculation of that kind. Neither would Uncle Sam object to any settlement on the land. In fact he would hail such a proceeding with joy, inasmuch as it would conform to lines that he has maintained vigorously for a fortnight or more through able counsel, and from his point of view would carry out the terms of the grant made by congress to the railway corporation more than 40 years ago.
Uncle Sam Backing Him.
 In case the Harriman people undertook to treat a settler on these lands as an interloper and attempted to eject him for illegal trespass, the United States would be in honor bound to arise in his might, as it has done of yore, call out the army and navy like wise the home guards and all its available force, including the moral squad, and make Harriman the great resemble a common, everyday Filipino. Protection is a stern duty it owes to all its citizens, whether native born or otherwise, and the fact that a person has taken the oath of allegiance to the stars and stripes would entitle him to all accompanying benefits. He would be a privileged character so far as his occupancy of these lands is concerned, and could retire at night—or sleep all day, if more desirable—without fear of gooseflesh developing on his hide or symptoms of cold chills doing the Marathon stunt up and down his spinal column, in the proud thought that he was immune from danger of being kicked off the premises by a mercenary corporation.
 Whether this condition is in any wise responsible for the unprecedented rush of settlers to the Oregon country just at present remains to be seen, but in any event it is worthy of note that it is an actual situation that confronts the railroad company today in regard to its titles in the Oregon & California land company.

COULDN'T EVEN PLAY HORSE
 About the only comment there is left to say about the High School-Hill Academy "baseball game" yesterday afternoon on the Willamette field is that there has been many years when the national game has looked a little shady and sickly in Salem, but yesterday those visitors made the game appear simply ludicrous, owing to the rank playing. Hill Academy was more than defeated; they were walloped all over the farm by the Salem High School lads, and at the end of the tiresome nine innings Salem had 18 runs and the visitors two measly runs, which they made on Salem's errors. The Salem lads played the game in elegant style, making few errors and some AI plays and their batting vision was good for base hits every time up.
 This is what several reports looked like, coming from different fans in Portland about Hill Academy baseball team: "Have beaten most everything they have ever been up against; have a first-class bunch on the field this year; were barred from joining the Colegiate League because they were too fast." The comments made on the Hill Academy team yesterday overheard coming from Salem fans were anything but complimentary, and hereafter it is not probable that a baseball aggregation can float in here and make good upon a mere reputation, for the Salem fans must be shown. There was no kick coming upon the players of the Salem High School, however, and the crowd was with them all the time.

MRS. BEULAH HAWKINS AGAIN PUZZLES SAVANTS
 (United Press Leased Wire.)
 Los Angeles, Cal., May 1.—Mrs. Beulah Hawkins, who is known throughout the country in medical circles as the most startling example of cataleptic phenomena, has again relapsed into stupor, and is at her home the art of medicine and surgery is powerless to awaken her.
 For the third time in two years the mystery of sleep has fallen upon the woman. Previously the spells have lasted several weeks, and the present attack began last Tuesday, but the family, because of public curiosity, kept the condition of Mrs. Hawkins secret.
 The patient has not been given treatment, and apparently her health is not affected by the spells.

CHICAGO SEAMEN GO ON A STRIKE
 (United Press Leased Wire.)
 Chicago, May 1.—Vessels of the Lake Carriers' Association are tied up today by a strike of the Lake Seamen's Union, which affects between 8000 and 15,000 men. The strike was ordered by the union yesterday, and went into effect at midnight.
 A thousand marine firemen, engineers, cooks and stewards quit here. Efforts are being made to man the boats with non-union employes, under police guard, but so far they have been far from successful.
 The police are patrolling the docks, but so far there has been no indication of violence.
 Failure of the association to recognize the union is one of the grievances of the employes.

MAJESTIC Malleable and Charcoal Iron RANGES
 "The Range With A Reputation"
 Suitable for all sizes of families and all kinds of fuel. The Majestic manufacturers were the first to try to make indestructible goods. They have come as near to it as is possible for human beings. The kind of goods that count, are those you can count on.
 The Majestic started 20 years ago. So far as they know, all ranges sold the first year, are still in use. The Majestic Range saves you time, labor, patience and money. Every housewife is entitled to the best range on the market. What if they do cost a few dollars more?
 You are not after "Cheap Stuff." You want the best and must not be misled by the cry of "this is cheaper," and "isn't this a handsome range." You are buying an article for use from about 6 to 16 hours a day. Your husband buys nothing that gets such hard usage. He buys the best plow or wagon because it's the cheapest in the long run. No article in the house or on the farm should be bought with as much care, for the above reasons. Isn't it queer that people will try to bankrupt themselves by buying "Something Cheaper?" Ask your friend or neighbor who has one.
