KIDNAPING OF ANNA MOONEY IS RECALLED

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Francisco, May 4.—The search for Annie Mooney, who 26 years ago dropped from sight at a family picnic at Belmont, was renewed today with one less loving searcher. The burial in this city yesterday of Alice Mooney sister of the lost woman, marked the closing of another chapter in a kidnaping case that for a quarter of a century has created interest second only to that caused by the disappearance of Charlie Ross.

In 1883, four years before the birth of Alice Mooney, little Annie Mooney, three years of age, disappeared at the Belmont picnic. Through the succeeding years the search for her has never been abandoned by the father, mother and other members of the Mooney family. Alice Mooney, who was buried yesterday, devoted the greater part of her 22 years to the search for the sister she had never seen, and today the remaining members of the family have renewed their apparently hopeless efforts. Seven brothers and sisters remain to prosecute the tireless search.

THREATENS TO KILL JUDGE GALLOWAY

[United Press Leased Wire.] TILLAMOOK, May 4.—Quite a sensation was caused when Judge Galloway took his seat on the bench yesterday morning and made the statement he had been informed by a reliable citizen that his life had been threatened and that he was not to live to pass sentence upon a certain defendant who had been found guilty at this term of circuit court. He said it was a deplorable state of affairs when a judge was threatened with assassination and that it was the first time he had been threatened in private or public life. It is generally thought it is some bootlegger who has been making the alleged threats. Attorney S. S. Johnson, who caused a scene in circuit court Saturday while intoxicated, insulted the court and then used vile language over the telephone to Sheriff Crenshaw about the judge, apologized to the court and was fined $20.

SEATTLE WARNED NOT TO ROB ITS GUESTS

[United Press Leased Wire.] Seattle, May 4.—J. J. Hittinger, chief special agent of the war department, who is in Seattle to arrange the department's exhibit in the government building at the A.-Y.-P. exposition, has sounded a note of warning to the owners of Seattle restaurants and lodging houses regarding rates. He declares that the success of the fair rests on the business methods of the owners of restaurants and lodging houses, and that if they try to hold up the visitors, the fair will be a failure. Mr. Hittinger has represented the war department at 10 expositions and is in a position to talk intelligently on the matter. He says that early visitors to the fair if mulcted by the hotel and restaurant keepers, go home and tell their friends about it and tell them to stay away. When that happens it spells ruin for an exposition, he asserts.

OLD MAN FOUND DEAD IN THE STREET

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Francisco, May 4.—With five cents in his pocket and a small bundle of clothes lying by his side, Joseph Hunter, about 75 years of age, was found dead in Mission street at an early hour today.

His name was learned by means of a paper in his pocket. It is thought he was ejected from some lodging house, and died in the street of exposure.

COMMISSION THINKS NAVY IS ALL RIGHT

London, May 4.—It is reported here today that there is a division of opinion among the members of the secret naval commission that has been investigating the charges brought by Admiral Beresford that the British navy is in an inefficient condition, and unprepared for war. On reliable authority it is learned, however, that the findings of the commission prove the charges to be unwarranted. Beresford's charges created consternation in naval circles, and, as a result, the commission of experts was named to inspect the vessels of the royal navy. Its reports is eagerly awaited.

SACRAMENTO TEAM LOSES GOOD MEN

Sacramento, Cal., May 4.—Outfielder Bobby McHale, for many years a prominent figure in Coast League circles, and Pitcher Lilly are no longer members of the Sacramento team. They were released last night by Manager Duhan. Adams, loaned to the Senators by the Oakland club, has returned. The cut in the ranks of the Senators makes it evident that young Zamlock has been meeting the ball with a vengeance, and it is intimated that when Third Baseman Jansing gets back into the game at Charlie Do-1; goes back to the outfield one of the regulars will occupy a spot on the bench while the heavy hitting Zamlock fills his former berth.

RICH PREACHER GAVE PROPERTY TO CHURCH

Los Angeles, May 4.—Broadway Christian church today owns the valuable property on which its building is situated, and, in addition, properties on which are located four branch missions. The property is the gift of the organizer of the church, the millionaire merchant-preacher, H. F. Coulter. Coulter organized the Broadway church in the early days of Los Angeles, and for 15 years its pastor, without salary. He is the proprietor of the immense Coulter Dry Goods House in this city. The property deeded to the church is said to be worth nearly $200,000.

WILL SHIP WHEAT FROM PACIFIC PORTS

Winnipeg, Man., May 4.—The grain crop of Alberta and Saskatchewan will be shipped to Europe via Vancouver, B. C., hereafter, instead of through ports on the Atlantic seaboard, according to a decision made by the Canadian Pacific railroad today, when it was settled that this policy should be pursued.

This means the shipment of between 50,000,000 and 75,000,000 bushels of grain over the Rocky Mountains each year. Part of this grain will be sent across the Isthmus of Panama and the rest around Cape Horn.

Manitoba's 100,000,000-bushel crop will reach Europe via Montreal and New York as heretofore.

THEY ALL WANT TO GET THE DOG'S COLLAR

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Francisco, May 4.—Anxious members of the social elite are busily prosecuting a search of dog hospitals and municipal pounds of the bay cities in a lingering hope of coming face to face with Mrs. Charles D. Alexander's pedigreed Boston terrier "Hazelwood." A dozen amateur sleuths and, it is hinted, a couple of gumshod representatives of the local police, are browsing about pawnshops endeavoring to find a trace of a dog necklace which he proudly wore when he disappeared two days ago.

The handsome canine was given to Mrs. Alexander by Miss Jennie Crocker, owner of the famous missing Crocker pearls. A collar set with pearls and bearing the dog's name was a second gift.

Sunday Mrs. Alexander and a company of friends journeyed to Muir's woods for a picnic. In a playful mood some heartless member of the party tossed an orange, from a distance of about 50 yards, and the orange projected itself upon the delicate arisal appendage of Hazelwood. Hazelwood disappeared down the trail. Hence the search that is already two days' old.

CALHOUN TRIAL GROWS INTERESTING

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Francisco, May 4.—Attempts on the part of the defense to impeach the witnesses brought by the prosecution in the Calhoun bribery trial were resumed today when former Supervisor Max Mamlock was called to the stand. During Mamlock's testimony Earl Rogers, who took up the burden of the defense, periodically arose to allege a difference in the testimony of the witness and the transcript of his statements during the grand jury investigation.

While on the stand Mamlock acknowledged that he had received $2000 in currency for his vote upon the trolley franchise. The money, he said, came from Gallagher, who took it from a deposit box. He stated that he had been given to understand that there would be $4000 in the trolley deal.

In reply to a question, Mamlock admitted that had Gallagher instructed him to vote against the franchise he would have obeyed the instruction.
