What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription." The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases, whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach, or intestinal dyspepsia, bowels (as in chronic constipation), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even the chronic or venereal sores of the throat, if treated with this medicine, are cured. It is often successful in affecting the liver. "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the treatment of all diseases of the urinary system, such as gonorrhea, cystitis, pyelitis, urethritis, etc. It is a powerful, yet gently acting, invigorating tonic and nervine. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain, and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system. A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose names are commended by physicians of all the schools of practice, as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines. The works of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are wiser for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak. Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. They are sold by druggists in medicine bottles. You can afford to accept as a substitute for these medicines of known composition any secret nostrum. Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

GENERAL HAMILTON SHORTAGE

Defends Woman of the Under World Who Caused His Downfall

(United Press Leased Wire.) Olympia, Wash., May 6.—Former Adjutant-General Ortils Hamilton, of the Washington National Guard, has been placed under $10,000 bonds on the charge of larceny by embezzlement of the military funds of the state, and today is endeavoring to secure bondsmen, having spent the night in a local hotel under guard of a deputy sheriff. The accused man is in telegraphic communication with his father and other relatives in Eastern Oregon, and it is believed that he will experience no difficulty in obtaining bondsmen. It is believed that Hamilton's father, who is a wealthy and highly respected citizen of Whitman county, will make full restitution to the state of the difference between Hamilton's bond and the total amount of his alleged thefts from the state. The grand total of the peculations of General Hamilton, so far as they have been discovered to date, are said to aggregate $45,790. In reply to a direct question today as to how much he had embezzled, Hamilton replied that he did not know, but thought it might amount to $10,000. The disgraced military officer endures his predicament with the utmost equanimity and indifference, but he stoutly defends his "affinity," Mrs. Hazel Moore, of Seattle, against every imputation. While Mrs. Moore possesses automobiles, pianos and diamonds, which may have been purchased with the money fraudulently secured from the state, without Hamilton's testimony that he bought them with the alleged stolen funds, the state can take no action to recover. Meanwhile the National Surety Company is held to be liable in the sum of $20,000, which is the amount of Hamilton's bond as adjutant-general. General Hamilton had entire charge of the funeral of the late Governor Crovve. He was educated at Portland, and is well-known to the people of Oregon. Seattle, Wash., May 6.—At the Hotel Butler Annex today Mrs. Hazel Moore, the woman for the love of whom Adjutant-General Ortils Hamilton is said to owe his downfall, assisted by her negro maid, is making preparations for a trip to California, with her 9-year-old daughter, Margaret. She will begin her journey on Friday of this week, it is said. Mrs. Moore refuses to see newspaper men, but over the telephone she entertains reporters with a tirade against the press, and states her intention to "make 'em sweat" for the stories published about her record.

Crazed on Near-Beer Jag.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Pendleton, Or., May 5.—Crazed from the effects a three-day near-beer jag, Arthur Laing, a well-known resident of Pendleton, attempted to end his life yesterday afternoon by taking strychnine. The bottle was snatched from his hand, but not until he had taken enough to render him unconscious. The prompt arrival of a physician probably saved his life, though he is still in a precarious condition.
