The Land Buyers' Club—A new real estate firm, the Land Buyers' Club, opened its doors for business here May 1 at 311 North Commercial street, in the Y. M. C. A. building. The company sells all kinds of farm and city property and makes a specialty of Southern Alberta wheat land. The company is sending a party of people to Alberta next Thursday, the 13th, and anybody interested in the Southern Alberta country should see them before the party leaves.

Wheels Want Owners—Chief of Police Gibson has two wheels at his office which have apparently been deserted by their original owners, as the night police found them in front of Salem business houses, where they had been standing for three days and more. One is a lady's wheel and the other a gentleman's.

Jap Returned Horse—The Japanese who hired a horse and buggy from the Fashion stables last Tuesday returned the rig this morning in good shape. He explained his reasons for remaining away so long by saying business was terribly rushing with him at present and that he had not slept for two nights. The horse appeared to be in good condition, however, and there being no damage to the outfit, Mr. Yanke, proprietor of the stables, accepted the rent for the three days' use as a settlement.

THE CLARK WIRELESS TELEGRAPH-TELEPHONE

Mr. John L. Schuyleman of Portland is at the Cottage hotel and will be in the city for two weeks representing the Clark Wireless Telegraph and Telephone Company of Detroit, Mich., where this company has headquarters. This company is managed by some of the most prominent business men, whose standing can be ascertained at any bank or financial institution of Detroit. The Clark company has a capital of $2,500,000. Stock one dollar par value. Ships are being equipped at the rate of four or five a week, and several hundred sets of instruments have been sold to the government and to experimental schools and foreign governments. The telegraph and telephone and other patents employed by the Clark Company are of the most superior kind, and guarantee transmissions perfectly for 400 to 1000 miles in all kinds of weather. Their stations have the best and most efficient equipment in the world, and the marvel of wireless transmission have only just begun, and will be the constant source of surprise, sure to revolutionize transmission of messages by land and sea, and every day coming into greater commercial use. A number of competent men are wanted by Mr. Schuyleman to handle this territory.

Fresh California Strawberries—At Irvin's grocery tomorrow morning. Phone 66.

An April Fool Story—Ask Cherrington to tell you that story about his April fool experience. He says he doesn't play tricks any more.

Old Building in the Way—As soon as arrangements can be made for removing the old Red Cross drug store building, corner of Commercial and State streets, work on the new five-story building will be commenced.

To Whom It May Concern—Notice is hereby given that the name and manner of doing business of the company known as Wm Brown & Co., located at 129 Commercial street, Salem, Oregon, is soon to be changed by the incorporation of the company under the name of "Wm. Brown & Co., Incorporated," the incorporators and owners of the stock to be Wm. Brown, Clifford W. Brown and E. Ellis Purvine. All persons having business with the company will take heed accordingly. 5-7-5t-eod

Miss Mina Parker, of Portland, is visiting her many friends in Salem. T. J. Holbrook, of Stayton, was looking after business matters here yesterday.

In Albany you have to belong to a club to have regular drinks. Each member has a locker with beer and a jug. He gives a Jap five cents and has the booze served to him. That is noble and square for a free-born American. Yet it is only one of the frauds practiced in alleged dry towns.

Little attacks of indigestion are what bring on other ailments, such as acute indigestion, chronic dyspepsia, and even more serious permanent illness. Kodol is guaranteed to give relief. Try it today. Sold by all druggists.
