PENNANTS DISAPPEARED AS A COLLEGE PRANK

Saturday evening after the field meet between the Salem and Eugene high schools a dance was given in the armory in honor of the visitors. To decorate the room for the occasion the Salem high school students furnished a number of handsome pennants that were the property of the individual students and that they prized highly as souvenirs. Sunday morning some of the students going to the armory for their pennants made the discovery that there were no pennants to take home, as some one else had taken the job off their hands. In taking stock it was found that 53 of them were missing. Many are inclined to think it was a college prank and that the Eugene boys took them for a joke, but this is hardly conceivable. The Eugene boys were a nice, gentlemanly lot of young fellows and while perhaps as prone as other boys to have a bit of fun, it is not probable, hardly possible, that they would carry the propensity for mischief to the extent of taking the property of their young hosts. It is also inconceivable that any one would steal them, for they could not be sold, or exhibit and would be no good in hiding. So the matter after all comes down to either some of our home boys doing the work with the intention of returning them or else it was done in a spirit of pique or revenge. Anyway, whoever took them certainly "took the pennant" numerously.

ground that at the time of the shooting the defendant was a soldier in the United States army.

When these motions had been denied Attorney Young addressed the court, making a plea for clemency, offering all the grounds recited in the trial and urging that the captain was under a terrible mental strain following the confession of his wife.

ISSUES FINE HANGER FOR PORTLAND ROSE SHOW

General Passenger Agent McMurray of the Southern Pacific is a good advertiser. His latest effort in that line is a fine hanger in colors that is a dandy. It represents a carnival procession with its floats and herolds, trumpeters, queens, dragons and the entire prigrinating paraphernalia peculiar to parades, processions and public pyrotechnical performances or pleasurable, peaceful presentation of things beautiful. In other words "it is derved good," and simply intimates what is going to be doing at Portland's rose show.

WHEAT JUMPED HIGHER CONTRARY TO ALL EXPECTATIONS THE CHICAGO MARKET ADVANCES

(United Press Special Wire.)
Chicago, May 17.—A complete reversal of opinion, a sort of doubt, was executed in quick time in the world's wheat market with the closing here 1/4 to 1 1/4c a bushel above the final figures Saturday.

Foreign influence, while showing a nominal disposition in late transactions, made itself felt at all American centers east of the Rockies today and forced the price of wheat to a more bullish basis with prices advanced.

To give the market its downcast period at the opening, there was the sharply lower figures at Liverpool's start to blame. That market suffered rather severely at the start from what is termed tired out lungs and over enthusiastic shorts, but these interests changed their opinions later in the day, with the market showing an advance of 1/4 to 1/4d at the closing.

The somewhat better call for cash stuff here was the indictment for short sellers to rebuy back some of the wheat they had sold earlier in the day. Minneapolis reported No. 1 Northern 2 1/4 to 4c a bushel over the July there, with the demand somewhat better than it has been during the past few days.

American grain visible supply shows:
Wheat decreased 2,467,000 bushels.
Corn decreased 517,000 bushels.
Oats decreased 523,000 bushels.
Primary receipts in bushels:
Wheat today 488,000; year ago, 671,000. Corn today, 364,000; year ago, 685,000.
Cash wheat sales—No. 2 red,

$1.45 1/2 @ 1.48; No. 3 red, $1.35 @ 1.45; No. 2 hard winter, $1.28 @ 1.35; No. 3 hard winter, $1.24 @ 1.28 No. 1 northern spring, $1.28 1/2 @ 1.30 1/2; No. 2 northern spring, 1.27 bid; No. 3 spring, $1.24 @ 1.28 per bushel.

LAWYER CONVICTED

Collins declared that there were other courses open to him and that he would reopen his case in several other courts.

"I have other plans for appeal which I cannot at this time make public," said Collins. "My motions will be presented in the United States supreme court and other courts. My future action will depend a great deal upon the grounds given for judgment in the decision of the members of the highest court."

GREAT CONTEST FOR QUEEN OF THE MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA

The great picnic of the Modern Woodmen of America, to be held at Silverton, June 5th, has resulted in advocating a contest to determine who shall be queen of the day on that occasion, when thousands of the "red ax" order will assemble there to carry out a program for the welfare of Woodcraft. The ladies entered in the race at Salem are all winners, in the estimation of their friends, including Iva Rice, Nellie Stanton, Aggie West, Cora Hamock, and the voting is conducted at Hill Bros.' cigar store, the White House, Gilson's barber shop, Anderson's barber shop and Scholtz & Stanton, on Court street. The lady winning will be entitled to all the honors of the Modern Woodmen of America, and they do nothing by halves.
