FORCED JAP PASTOR TO LEAVE CHURCH

San Francisco, May 19.—The Rev. H. Aoki, former pastor of the Episcopal Japanese Mission in this city and brother of Gunjiro Aoki, husband of Gladys Emery Aoki, has disappeared from this city and his whereabouts are unknown to his congregation. It is said today that the members of the mission demanded his resignation as their pastor as a result of the part he played in the romance of his brother and the daughter of Archbishop Emery. A delegation is said to have called on the preacher after the marriage in Seattle, and scolded him for not informing the Emery family of his brother's past record. It is reported that Aoki appealed to Bishop Nichols, but his resignation soon followed.

ROBERTS SAYS ENGLAND IS WITHOUT AN ARMY

London, May 19.—Execrations of the politicians of Great Britain, who have regarded the British assembly as a party puppet, and denunciation of the people for apathy toward the nation's defense, falling from the lips of Lord Roberts in debate today of the house of lords, is the subject today of amazed and partly indignant discussion in army circles and public prints. "Our army is a sham. We have no army," exclaimed the field marshal, commencing upon the Duke of Bedford's motion for an inquiry into the condition of the reserve. "I know perfectly well that the leaders in both houses of parliament are anxious about the future, but and brother O. Gunjiro Aoki, husband have neither an army to send abroad, nor to defend the country at home. While we are sitting here, taking it easily and comfortably, the danger is coming nearer and nearer to us daily, and unless you cease telling the people they are living in safety, and get an army fit to deal with any enemy, we shall one day come to such utter grief that you will bitterly regret your inaction. "It is a perfect marvel to me how anybody can see what is going on around us in Europe, and be content with the condition of our army. No country in the world would attempt to defend itself with the paucity of men, and with the untrained men we have got. "You will never have a real army until you have taken the nation into your confidence, and tell them their danger. You may think you are safe, but you are not. Be frank, and tell the nation what is before them. They will respond."

GRAND ENCAMPMENT OF ODD FELLOWS

May Greer of Hillsboro; inside guard, Miss Fannie Hechtman of Portland; acting outside guard, Miss Mary Jones of Portland; chaplain, Mrs. Jaca Willoughby of Eugene.

JUDGE GATENS WILL CONTEST THE RECALL

Judge Wm. Gatens of Portland is in the city today to look after the validity of the recall petition filed against him. He says the emergency clause fully protects him against the matter being put to a vote. He also charges that many of the signatures were obtained upon misrepresentation.

HARRIMAN TAKES A RAILROAD FOR LUNCH

San Francisco, May 19.—E. H. Harriman is now the owner of the Balloon Route Excursion Company, according to an announcement here today. It is known that the magnate has considered the purchase of the line, when he visited Los Angeles. According to the announcement, the property passed into his control Sunday.

The Balloon Route entered the local field last year, handling 100,000 passengers on its excursions in this city and to Mount Tamalpais. It also operates from Los Angeles, Redlands, Riverside, San Diego and other southern California cities.

CHOOSE SALEM'S QUEEN FOR THE ROSE CARNIVAL

Salem will elect one of its fair women to preside as queen of the Cherry City float at the Rose Carnival in Portland. The honor will not be an entirely empty one, for Salem will send its queen attired as she might have reigned in the halls of the Fourteenth Louis.

The project is under the direction of the Salem Board of Trade, and that organization is not in the habit of neglecting anything it undertakes. To decide which of Salem's daughters shall contest, or rather for whom their friends shall contest, write the name of the lady of your choice on the ballot printed below or on as many of them as you can get, and deposit at any of the voting places named at the bottom of this article.

For Salem's Queen at Portland Rose Festival 1909

The six ladies receiving the highest number of these ballots during the two days will be the contestants. Thereafter ballots will cost the partisans of the candidate queens five cents each.

Nobody has yet been mentioned, and the contest is open to all. Every expense of the lady who is elected will be paid by the Board of Trade, and there will be nothing shabby about the arrangements for either the float or the attire of the lady who will represent the city.

Who will win?

Ballot boxes are now open at the following places, where ballots can be deposited:

The Spa, Belle's confectionery store, Buckingham's, Douglas's, Zinn's, Waters' cigar store, Adolph cigar store, Patton Bros' book store and the Commercial store.

George Meredith, the English novelist, is seriously ill today and it is feared cannot recover.

BACK GIVES OUT.

Plenty of Salem Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them— You tax the kidneys—overwork them— The back gives out—it aches and pains. Urinary troubles set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills. Salem people tell you how they act.

W. H. Wood, carpenter, 250 Cottage street, Salem, Or., says: "A good many years ago I was kicked by a mule. At another time while digging a well, it caved in on me. Since then I have had more or less trouble from my kidneys. Any chance of weather caused my back to ache, and when I worked hard I became so lame that I could hardly straighten after stooping. I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Stone's drug store, and, although I have continued to work hard, and have been exposed to bad weather, not an ache or other symptom of my former trouble remains. This clearly proves that Doan's Kidney Pills live up to the claim made for them. I also know of other people who have derived great benefit from their use.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.
