A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root, and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasteful away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry-bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure severe, chronic, and nervous coughs, bronchitis, and hoarseness. In acute coughs, it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-over coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine: "In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a base quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon encrusted, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric stomach acidity." "Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood, curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about this wonderful medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

THE DOG CAUSED TROUBLE BECAUSE HE DID'NT LIKE THE STREET CAR

While one of the big Oregon Electric cars was passing down Broadway last evening, in North Salem, a young shepherd dog belonging to P. W. Reynolds, the proprietor of the busy little butcher shop on South Commercial street, ran out on the track in front of the moving car, which struck him on the head so hard the unfortunate pup could not survive. Mr. Reynolds was driving along the side of the track at the time, and when the dog was thrown aside by the car, the mare which he was driving became frightened and plunged to one side of the road, colliding with a laundry wagon near the curb and tipped it over. The driver of the laundry wagon, John Bellamy was thrown out with such force it fractured the bones in his foot. In the meantime Reynolds' frightened horse ran down Broadway, and the driver was unable to stop her until she had run three blocks, on account of the hold-back straps giving away. He finally succeeded in quieting the animal without further damage. Dr. E. E. Fisher was summoned at once to attend Bellamy's injuries. No one could be held responsible for the accident, as the canine was the cause of Reynolds' mare becoming frightened, the cause of the laundry wagon upsetting, that the cause of Bellamy's injury, and the dog, the careless cause of the whole trouble, is beyond all blame, being dead.

OLD PIONEER AT THE CAPITAL CITY

George L. Ford, of Newport, was in the city today to visit friends, and he was surprised at the changes since he was here about 30 years ago. He built the old Dr. Skiff residence, next to the Imperial Furniture Co. building, 37 years ago, and recalled many of the men then in their prime and doing business, who have passed away.

WANT PAVEMENT TO CLOSE UP A GAP

Property owners on Liberty street between State and Ferry are desirous that the paving of Ferry street extend to the east line of Liberty, and not stop at the west line, as they want Liberty paved from State to Ferry. That would close the gap around that block, and the street committee ought to make that slight change.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally. Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. Whooping Cough.

This is a more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to many to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever. Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, and always with the best results. Delbert McKelg of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: "...y boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which proved good. I cannot recommend it too highly." For sale by all good druggists.
