

DR. JAEGER HEALTH SHOE FOR WOMEN

YEARS AHEAD OF THE ORDINARY CUSHION SHOE

A method of generating a mild flow of electricity has been applied to the Dr. Jaeger Health Shoe for women in such a skillful and scientific manner that one would not realize that the shoe worn was different from any other shoe, save for the easy cushion bed and the exhilarating effect on the general system. A better circulation of the blood results and the tired nerves become rested, in fact, the general health of the wearer is benefited.

THE ONLY REAL HEALTH SHOE EVER INVENTED, AND THE FIRST PERFECT SHOE EVER WORN

These shoes, Health Shoes, are part of our new Spring stock.

BLIND SCHOOL GRADUATES

The commencement exercises of the blind school, held at the Christian church, last night, drew one of the largest audiences ever in the building. It was standing room only by 8 o'clock, notwithstanding that the Sunday school room was also thrown open. After a song by the glee club, State Superintendent Ackerman made a brief address, outlining the work of the school for the blind, and in a few feeling and well-chosen words to each, handed them, in turn, their hard-earned diplomas. Those graduating in the literary course were Joseph Stephens, Mabel Templeton, William Baller, Myrtle Buzan, Lee Perin, Ellen Severson and Frank Sanders.

Piano—Myrtle Buzan and Frank Sanders.
 Piano tuning—Lee Perin.
 The class colors are blue and white, and the class motto, "Work with a vim for short is the day."
 Following the distribution of the diplomas, the pretty operetta "Sylvia" was presented, and presented charmingly. The chorus singing was good, and so were some of the solos, especially "Though Love Be Blind," by Nellie Roberts, and "The Gay West Wind," by Baller. Indeed, too much praise cannot be given the participants, for they did good, conscientious work, and deserved the hearty applause they received.

R. H. Leahy, as the prince, did most excellent comedy work, and his song "I am a man of Consequence," in which he was assisted by Mabel Cronie and Ellen Severson, was the hit of the evening.

EXPLAINING SOMETHING THAT DOESN'T NEED IT

Manager Waldo Miller, of the Fairmount club, called at this office and informed the proprietors that many baseball "fans" had been jumping him today in regard to the article appearing in this paper yesterday evening concerning a lot of useless roasts directed toward Managers Heyser and Jerman for being defeated by the Fairmount ball team recently. It is evident from what Manager Miller said this morning that there are still a few people in the world that do not see articles in the newspapers as they are written, and so imbibed with that skeptical curiosity that they will actually run into difficulties in order to satisfy their own minds when they read something that might be misleading.

In the article mentioned above, there is the following paragraph: "Heyser and German don't say much about it, as the opportunity of keeping still and hear the baseball bug hum in meaningless tones, cannot be resisted by the wise promoters, and they are enjoying a big bunch of knocks coming from people who don't see the point, and rather enjoy being able to yell about nothing."

Now, in explaining this piece satisfactorily to Manager Miller, the writer of the article wishes the public to understand that the reason Heyser and Jerman do not say much in regard to the game, they would rather keep still and hear others display their ignorance, than to speak in plainer language, than to explain or try to make an excuse for being defeated, as the result of having a crippled team on the diamond. And, to further explain the matter, the part of the article which says "people who don't see the point," means that it shows lack of judgment and knowledge of real sport when a man kicks up a row or continues to roast the managers of a ball team for being defeated by an inferior aggregation. According to Miller's talk this morning, several people are being led to believe, through the article of yesterday, that the Salem-Fairmount game was a "doped" game between the two teams, but one to believe this must be very much on the shady side of the fence, not to see the real meaning of the piece written, which was intended for people who do not know how to account for a one-sided ball game, and those who believe the game was not according to regulations have got another guess coming, and it might be beneficial to them to purchasing a good field glass in order to understand when a ball game is a fake or not.

If this explanation is not sufficient, however, those who don't understand it are privileged to talk it over with the baseball reporter at any time, as he would be pleased to take a day off and try to satisfy them.

Bits for Breakfast, Dinner and Supper.

The people of Salem and Marion county are very clever and intelligent, but they do not realize nor do they understand what a vast amount of wealth there is stowed away right at their door in the Santiam.

If they did, they would not be chasing off into remote and unknown districts, after some "wild-cat" mining investment, that they know nothing of, and they wouldn't be going crazy over some "fairy tale" chirped off by some glib-tongued little upstart of promoter.

Neither would they be going wild after "wireless" and the like, but they would come to the rescue and help develop our own industries at "home." They would invest every dollar they could spare in these mines in the Santiam.

This would tend to the creation of more business at home, and stimulate what business they already have. It would bring thousands of new people in, who would bring their money with them, which would help business in every line of industry.

This is a glorious opportunity you have for investing your money, and we believe that in just a few years this stock will be worth many hundred times par, if it is, look what enormous dividends it will pay you.

There is no known business that will beat copper mining as an investment. There is more money made in copper than any other branch of industry.

Yet, dear people, are rarely ever given an opportunity to invest in copper mines, because there is where nearly all of the money in mining is made. They are gobbled up by the capitalist and worked by close corporation.

If they have any gold mining stocks and other "wild cat" schemes, they will hunt you up, take you into their confidence, as it were, and load you up for bear with their "get-rich-quick" gold mining, good for nothing, shin plasters.

They never offer you any copper stock. Not on your "tin-type." Just look here!

These comparisons below of copper and gold mines of the 11 leading mines of the world in each class will show you where the bulk of the money in mines is made, and prove to you what I'm telling you is true:

Copper.	Dividends Paid to Date.
Calumet & Hee, Mich.	$107,850,000
Boston & Mont., Mont.	59,125,000
Amalgamated, Mont.	57,335,000
Anaconda, Mont.	41,190,000
United Verde, Ariz.	26,545,322
Quincy, Mich.	18,630,000
Arizona, Ariz.	12,380,657
Calumet & Ariz., Ariz.	10,100,000
Tamarack, Mich.	9,420,000
Copper Range Con., Mich.	8,063,072
United, Mont.	7,625,000
Total	$358,074,190

Gold.	Dividends Paid to Date.
Homestake, S. D.	$17,445,350
Alaska-Treadwell, Alas.	9,585,000
Portland, Colo.	8,107,080
Camp Bird, Colo.	4,991,750
Elkton Con., Colo.	2,241,959
Plumus-Eureka, Cal.	2,831,294
Strong, Colo.	2,275,000
Vindicator Con., Colo.	1,935,000
Kennedy, Colo.	1,801,001
Kendall, Mont.	1,285,000
La Fortuna, Ariz.	1,200,500
Total	$53,698,934

I am offering to you an investment in one of the best looking copper mines in the country, "The Electric Mine." It looks a great deal better than many of the mines mentioned in the above list at the same stage of development, and on account of its small capital I believe it will be able to pay larger dividends than most of them.

The big custom smelter is going to be built right in our midst, thus insuring cheap delivery of our ore.

Come, invest your money in copper stock at home, and in a mine that is good to look at. Buy now, while it is cheap; only 25 cents per share, and you'll have to hurry, as the stock is going skyward pretty soon on account of the recent big strike in the mine. Write, phone or call at office for particulars. Yours truly,

D. K. MAY, Fiscal Agent.
