

THE WOMAN TEMPTED HIM AND HE DID SKIP

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., May 23.—It became known today that Joseph H. Storres, the brilliant orator and lawyer of Lincoln, Neb., who was placed under arrest in Seattle Saturday, charged with the embezzlement of $5000 belonging to an estate of which he was administrator, had eloped with a young woman of Hastings, Neb., and it was through a letter written by her, and intercepted by the authorities, that he was apprehended.

tradition and return to Lincoln at once, but if Miss Moline was detained he would fight every attempt to return him to Nebraska. Since his flight in February last, Storres has been closely pursued through the greater part of the United States by Sergeant Morse, of the Lincoln police department. Miss Moline, who separated from Storres in Grand Forks, N. D., planned to rejoin him on the Pacific coast and marry him, but the pursuit of the detective was so keen that it was not until last Friday that the runaway couple were able to meet. From Everett, Wash., Miss Moline wrote a letter to Storres' brother, who lives in Seattle, appraising him of the expected arrival in the city of the Lincoln lawyer. This letter, which was intercepted, apprised the authorities of Storres' whereabouts, and resulted in his arrest shortly after his arrival in Seattle.

JEFFRIES' BLIND NEICE TO MARRY

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, May 24.—Miss Hazel Corbett, the blind niece of James J. Corbett and Pitcher Joe Corbett, of the San Francisco Coast

League baseball team, and daughter of the late Harry Corbett, is to wed Alfred De Wit, wire chief of the Kearney office of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company. While the engagement has not been announced, it was acknowledged by Miss Corbett today. Miss Corbett has been blind since birth, but, despite this great handicap, is a talented pianist, is well read and well posted upon the affairs of the world. During the years before her father's death she was his constant companion. She inherited from him considerable property.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

One way to keep the hands from being soiled by labor, is to let the other fellow do the work.

Chamberlain's Liniment. This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by all good druggists.
