Notice to Public—
"The Cottage Undertaking Parlors" have a new process of embalming without the use of instruments or mutilations of body by the chemical process of absorption. The Cottage Undertaking Parlors also furnishes a fine black broadcloth or any colored plush casket, including nice burial robe, free use of private chapel, hearse, embalming, and one carriage for the mourners, and furthermore up-to-date service, all for $75, making a saving of from $30 to $50, under other funeral directors' prices. We mean to do as above stated, and are here to back up our promise. We still have cheaper caskets if wanted, black cloth caskets, including burial robe, free use of hearse and embalming as low as $35.00. Our place and method of doing business is up to date and we don't hesitate to say that our place is the most up to date on the Pacific coast, barring none. "Cottage Undertaking Parlors," 293 N. Cottage street. Phone 724. 4-27-1 mo

Pioneer Association—
The Oregon Pioneer Association will meet Friday, June 11, in the Masonic temple at Portland. P. H. D'Arcy of this city will deliver the annual address. The Indian War Veterans will meet the day previous, June 10.

Haysville School Entertainment—
The pupils of the Haysville school will give a musical and literary entertainment in their school house next Saturday evening, which will be followed by an ice cream social. The public is cordially invited; admission free.

Eugene Will Celebrate—
Eugene has decided to celebrate July 4 in great style. While arrangements are not yet all completed, it is probable there will be a race meet Saturday, open-air religious services Sunday, with a sacred band concert and a celebration proper Monday. Arrangements will probably be made for special rates on the S. P. lines on that occasion.

Get an Expert Opinion—
Manager Bowers, of the Hotel Portland, Portland, was in the city this morning. He came up at the request of the parties who recently purchased the Willamette Hotel, and for the sole purpose of giving them the benefit of his experience, should they conclude to remodel the building for hotel purposes. Mr. Bowers certainly knows how a modern hotel building should be arranged, and in fact everything else there is to know about the hotel business.

Big Double Action Hoist—
A 20-horsepower double-action hoisting engine was unloaded from an O. E. flatcar on State street near Commercial this morning. It will be used in swinging up the big steel girders and frame for the United States National bank building into place, and it looks big enough to handle them with as much ease and grace as a cub bear would a roasting ear.

License to Marry—
County Clerk Allen has issued a marriage license to John A. Krebs, age 30, and Grace E. Keys, age 18, both residents of Salem.

Strawberries Getting Ripe—
An ad in today's Journal says strawberries are about ripe, and wants berry pickers to call and help take care of them. The crop promises to be a large one and the cool weather during the spring is liable to cause that crop to ripen quickly when it gets ready.

General Sheridan's Hangout—
Attorney W. H. Holmes, in talking to a reporter a few days ago, said the old Red Cross corner was, in early days the great hangout place of General Phil Sheridan. That the general, in those days, was an inveterate whittler, always having a pine stick in one hand and his jack-knife in the other. And, said Holmes, he generally carried some of the chips on his shoulder, as he was apparently always looking for a scrap.

Rescue Workers to Meet—
There will be a mass meeting of those interested in rescue work Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the lecture room of the Methodist church. Workers from Portland will be present, and all those interested in the work are urgently requested to attend.

Herve Will Get Well—
This morning Will Herve, the man who is lying in the Salem Hospital with a bullet wound in his stomach as the result of the duel at Gates some time ago, showed signs of improvement, and the physicians are of the opinion that he will recover from the injury and be ready to transfer to the county jail before a great while.

Buried This Morning—
The remains of J. W. Steel, the man who met death recently as the result of a tree falling on him, just south of the city, were laid to rest this morning at 10 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. J. A.

Look At This

For Sale—A first class rooming and boarding house proposition at Newport, Oregon. Two houses and furnishings and lots will be sold for less than the cost of the houses. The buildings are four years old and furnished complete. The owner is a non-resident and needs the money. Look into this as a speculation.

LEE WILLIAMS
Newport, Ore. Inquire at Journal Office

Harper, of the Free Methodist church in this city. The burial took place in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Nothing more has been heard by Coroner Clough from the dead man's brothers in Iowa.

Do Not Ask for Money—
The local promoters of wrestling have heard nothing more concerning the fake match between Sullivan and O'Connell last Friday night and so far nothing has been said by the two wrestlers about the receipts. It is not likely that a demand will be made for any of the money, as the law looms up with a jail end to it.

Fred Mullen, Julius Goldsmith and Abe Kelley, of Eugene, came down this morning in an auto.

The Panama canal will cost twice as much as it was thought it would, but then everybody "thought it would."

Wanted—30 strawberry pickers; 3 miles out on Oak Grove-Salem road. Good camping place; 3 weeks picking; no pickers under 12 years. G. R. Adams, Route No. 2, Box 23. 5-24-3t
