SUPREME COURT OPINIONS

NO GREAT IMPORTANCE--ONE LOCAL OPTION CASE

The Supreme Court reduced the large docket again today by handing down seven opinions. Justice McBride's was among their first opinion.

Jessie Alexander, respondent, vs. Edith Munroe et al, defendant and appellant, appealed from the Circuit Court of Washington county, Thos. A. McBride, judge, affirmed, opinion written by Justice Eakin.

E. O. White, respondent, vs. O. S. Brown, appellant, appealed from Josephine county, H. K. Hanna, judge, affirmed, Chief Justice Moore.

W. H. Bradford, appellant, vs. Petruella Durham et al, defendants, and respondents, appealed from Douglass county, J. W. Hamilton, judge, modified per curiam.

The above cases are all in equity, being suits involving property rights, etc.

The following local option cases were decided today, being brought up to the Supreme Court from the lower courts of Malheur county:

State of Oregon ex rel James Harvey and L. B. Teter, appellants, vs. County Court of Malheur county, B. C. Richardson, judge thereof, W. J. Scott and G. B. Glover, commissioners thereof, respondents, appealed from the Circuit Court of Malheur county, Geo. E. Davis, judge, heard during the Pendleton term, affirmed by Justice McBride. This is a proceeding in mandamus to compel the County Court of Malheur county to amend an order of prohibition made in June, 1908, in Vale, by the City Council of that city, which was given power to regulate the prohibition law by a charter of the legislature passed in 1905. The Supreme Court holds that the City of Vale is not given full power to regulate the sale of liquor notwithstanding the subsequent adoption of the local option law. The appellants also allege an insufficient notice of the local option election was given, but Judge McBride holds that the writ of notice is defective and that point was therefore not at issue in the present cause and therefore affirms the decision of the lower court.

There were two other cases decided in the same matter by the Supreme Court affirming each.

Hallie Parrish-Hinges—Is making a hit singing "My Old Lady" at Bly's theatre.

You Can't Do Better—Lots from $50 to $200 on payments of $5 to $15 per month. Homer H. Smith, Room 5, McCormack Bldg. Phone 96. 5-7-1f

Bly's Theatre—Ross & Shaw are the head-liners for this week, in their musical non-descript entitled "Down in Jungle Town." Don't miss it.

Tomorrow Is S. S. Day—In all Presbyterian churches of the North Pacific board District. At 8 p. m. a special program will be given in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church, and a general good time is expected. Everybody urged to be present.

Notice—All who have relatives buried in the Eoff cemetery are requested to donate one-half day's work, or pay Arthur Johnson, of Macleay, the sum required to do the work of grubbing Scotch broom, the work to be completed this week.

Grocery Store Robbed—The police were notified Monday morning of a robbery at the Englebart grocery store on Twelfth street, but upon investigation they found nothing to work upon. The store had been entered from the front door, a bolt being removed on the inside, and the cash register opened, apparently with a key. Ten dollars was taken from the register.

Teddy Roosevelt—In the jungles of Africa at the Star. This picture in the hit of 1909. It shows our ex-president's way of slaying the lions of the jungles.

For Assault and Battery—Robert Lafore was haled into the justice of the peace's court this morning after being arrested by Constable Ira Hamilton last evening on the charge of assault and battery, and after pleading of guilty, was put under $250 bonds to appear for trial next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Frank Berget is the complainant, who alleges Lafore assaulted him and broke his arm.

A Fine Animal—N. L. Strong, one of the best known horsemen in the state, is in the city with his fine animal "Decorated." Mr. Strong is not sure at present whether he will enter his stallion at the coming State Fair race meet, but he thinks probably he will have him stabled at the grounds this summer.

Refuse to Build Depot—The Corvallis & Eastern Railroad has filed an answer in its suit with the railroad commission. Some time ago the railroad commission ordered the company to construct a depot at the town of Lyons, Oregon, on the complaint of the citizens of that place, but the railroad company failed to comply with the order and the matter was taken before the circuit court of Linn county. The answer says the courts have no jurisdiction to compel them to erect a depot as asked for by the commission.

Sues on Note—Suit has been started in the circuit court by Cordelia Hager against Albert Nys to recover $125. The complaint, filed today, alleges the amount is due the plaintiff on a promissory note. Twenty-five dollars is also asked for as attorney's fees. George G. Bingham is appearing for the plaintiff.

Judge Bradshaw, at the last term of court in Crook county, sentenced a woman, Mrs. Betty Erickson, to one year in the pen.

Notice to Public—The Cottage Undertaking Parlors have a new process of embalming without the use of instruments or mutilations of body by the chemical process of absorption. The Cottage Undertaking Parlors also furnishes a fine black broadcloth or any colored plush casket, including nice burial robe, free use of private chapel, hearse, embalming, and one carriage for the mourners, and furthermore up-to-date service, all for $75, making a saving of from $20 to $50, under other funeral directors' prices. We mean to do as above stated, and are here to back up our promise. We still have cheaper caskets if wanted, black cloth caskets, including burial robe, free use of hearse and embalming as low as $35.00. Our place and method of doing business is up to date and we don't hesitate to say that our place is the most up to date on the Pacific coast, barring none. "Cottage Undertaking Parlors," 293 N. Knapp, 2417 Hyde street. Rev. Davis Errett performed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Radford left for a trip to Portland and the Sound cities.

Fire Outfit at Asylum—The state yesterday awarded the contract to equip the insane asylum with fire extinguishers as follows: The Pacific Fire Extinguisher Company, sprinkler system, $9,962.75; Long & Company, of Portland, order for 12 Patrol Extinguishers at $13 each. The Graham Rubber Company, order for 42 Sentries extinguishers at $7.95 each.

Annual June Play—On the evening of June 1 in the Grand opera house the college of oratory o. Willamette university will present to the public the drama "Anne of Old Salem." The play is of the Puritan period dealing with witchcraft. It has many strong scenes and at the same time a line of humor runs through it, which drives away the heartache and turns sadness into mirth. The cast has been carefully selected and is being thoroughly coached by Miss Adams. To those who have seen these annual plays it is only necessary to announce the date, but to the new people who have come to Salem to make their home we will say that the productions of the college of oratory are of the highest order, excelling the work of many of the professional companies who charge $1.50 and $1.00 for seats.
