COMPARES SOME CHURCHES TO A LEAKY VESSEL

DR. M'INTURFF EMPLOYS STRIKING ILLUSTRATIONS AND ADDS MORE CONVERTS TO THE BAPTIST FOLD

Dr. McInturff's great union revival meeting last night at the First Baptist church drew a crowded house, and he discoursed on "What can I do to get to Heaven." He was assisted by the wonderful singing of Rev. Pontius, and there was the usual number of conversions. This evening Rev. J. M. Moore of the American Board of Baptist Missions, will speak. He is one of the greatest pulpit speakers of the denomination.

CAHILL ADMITS HE STOLE AUTOMOBILE

San Francisco, June 1.—The maze of mystery that surrounded the theft of an automobile belonging to H. C. Keyes of Sacramento, the subsequent recovery of the machine in this city, and the arrest of Rex H. Cahill, a chauffeur, has been dispelled. Cahill has admitted that he stole the car and his further revelations explain the connection with the case of Mrs. M. S. Sponsel of Long Beach.

Cahill stated that recently he married the daughter of Mrs. A. Corns of Alameda. The daughter was Mrs. Sponsel. Mrs. Corns owned a Winton car which she wanted to exchange for a smaller machine and Cahill took the Winton, journeyed to Fresno, and there sold it. At Sacramento, fearing to return to his mother-in-law without the machine or the money, he broke into the Mannix garage and stole the Keyes' car, substituting upon it the number from his wife's machine. Cahill will be taken to Sacramento to stand trial for burglary.

THAT NASTY CALHOUN CASE STILL DRAGS

San Francisco, June 1.—That he had evaded court officers who were searching for him with a subpoena to compel him to appear as a witness, and that he had done it to give the Burns detectives "a merry little chase," was the statement of Hugh O'Neill, an attorney, from the witness stand in the Calhoun trial today. O'Neill talked with John Helms upon his arrival in San Francisco from Ruth, Trinity county. It was he who caused Helms to telephone the office of Attorney Metson, former legal advisor to Eugene Schmitz when the conversation was recorded by a stenographer in Metson's office. Helms was called to the stand again today. He repeated a conversation with Winfield Lamb, during which he said he was offered $3,000 not to testify in the present trial.

U. S. SUPREME COURT GRANTS REHEARING

Washington, D. C., June 1.—The supreme court of the United States today granted a rehearing of the cases of officers and citizens of Hamilton county, Tenn., convicted of contempt of court in connection with the lynching of Ed. Johnson, a negro, at Chattanooga. The defendants are Sheriff Shipp, Deputy Sheriff Gibson and Nick Noland, Henry Padgett, Luther Williams and Henry May, citizens. The officers are accused of violating an injunction of the court by allowing the lynching of the negro, after he had been granted a reprieve from a death sentence, and the citizens are accused of participating in the lynching. The rehearing will go over until the October term of court.

REDUCED RATES GO INTO EFFECT TODAY

Chicago, June 1.—Reduced rates for summer trips to western points went into effect today. Return tickets from Chicago to California coast cities good from June 24 to July 19, and July 27 to August 6, are on sale today for $62.50. The round trip fare of $62 from Chicago to Portland, Seattle and other cities in the Northwest will be available until September 9.

CASSEN REMEMBERED HE HAD BEEN ROBBED

San Francisco, June 1.—Suddenly remembering that it was the usual thing to report robberies to the police, H. C. Cassen hurriedly called up the police last night and imparted the information that his house had been broken into. "I have been robbed," he told the detective who was detailed to investigate the case. "See, my window shows that it has been pried open. My house has been looted." "No, it wasn't today. It was exactly three months ago." The officer was afraid that the scent might be cold, but, determined to do his duty, he asked for a list of the missing articles. After a careful inventory Mr. Cassen itemized his losses as follows: One lead pencil5c One can salmon10c Total15c

CRAZY CHINAMAN TERRORIZES TOWN

Bakersfield, Cal., June 1.—Raving crazy and possessed of a murderous mania, Ah Sam, a Chinese cook, is in the city jail today, after running amuck and creating a reign of terror in the town of Weldon. He was captured by an unarmed man. Sam went crazy when his supply of opium gave out. He seized a rifle, and after attempting to kill his employer Charles Brown, ran howling down the main business street of Weldon, shooting at everyone within range. Leaving the town, the Chinese made for the upper Kern river country. A posse of men under Constable Hight, of Kernville, followed him. He was caught in a stable by a hostler, who seized him from behind and wrested the rifle from his grasp. The gun was discharged during the scuffle, the bullet passing through the hostler's clothing.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CLOSING DAY TO BE OBSERVED

Public School Closing Day will be observed with a public parade and program of music and addresses to boost Salem as the greatest public school center in the west. With the model high school and five large ward schools, with vocal and drawing in every grade, and with manual training to be introduced next year, "this city has an educational program before it second to none on the Pacific coast. President A. A. Lee of the Board of Education has charge of the matter of a public parade, with Directors Eppley and Backock and a committee of the Board of Trade and Business Men's League to assist them, it will be made a great success.

While Albany is spending a couple of thousand dollars on a revival, Salem is backing a big fight for sewers.

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS

The supreme court handed down many opinions this morning, several on petitions for rehearing and a few on their merits.

A. A. Cunningham, respondent, vs. the Klamath Falls Railroad Co., appellants, from Multnomah county, a petition for rehearing, denied; opinion by Chief Justice Moore.

E. B. Hanley, respondent, against W. H. Stewart, appellant, appealed from Jackson county, H. K. Hanna, judge, motion to dismiss, allowed; opinion by Chief Justice Moore.

A. F. Flegal, appellant, against Peter Dawley, respondent, from Multnomah county, Arthur L. Frazier, judge, reversed and remanded; opinion by Justice Slater.

The Multnomah Lumber and Box Co. respondent, vs. Western Basket and Barrel Co., appellant, from Multnomah county, J. B. Clelland, judge, petition for rehearing, denied; opinion by Chief Justice Moore.

E. B. Seabrook, respondent, vs. the Coos Bay Ice and Cold Storage Co., from Coos county, J. W. Hamilton, judge, reversed and remanded; opinion by Justice Eakin.

Christ C. Boe, appellant, against Hoyt Arnold, respondent, from Malheur county, Geo. E. Davis, judge, affirmed; opinion by Justice Mc-Bride.

State, respondent, against Chas. W. Walton, appellant, from Multnomah county, affirmed; opinion by Eakin, dissenting opinion by Justice King and Bean, on petition for rehearing. This is a case where Walton was accused of assaulting a man in Portland with intent to rob. The case came before the circuit court of Multnomah county and Walton was sentenced to serve 25 years in the penitentiary. He appealed to the supreme court and in an opinion written by Justice King the case was remanded. Walton was again tried and sentenced to three years, when the present appeal was taken and the result is, the decision of the lower courts will stand in spite of the dissenting opinion written by Justice King and endorsed by Bean.

State of Oregon, plaintiff and respondent, vs. C. H. Attwood and C. H. T. Attwood, defendants and appellants, from Multnomah county, J. B. Clelland, judge, affirmed; opinion by Justice Eakin.

Owing to some of the members of the supreme bench being absent during the argument of the Krebs hop case, a re-argument is ordered by the court before a full bench.

ASKED FOR BREAD AND GOT A CELL

Unable to reach Seattle, owing to their strained conditions, financially, four gentlemen hailing all the way from Mexico to Northern Maine, were brought before Judge Moores in the police court this morning, on the charge of being too familiar with the good citizens of Salem. Last night these four stranded personages were seen to walk up to some Salem people, and with no more ceremony than a man asking for a match, they requested little loans with which to purchase something to eat, get a shave and possibly take a bath. Internally, one of them, all along John Does, had the nerve to ask one man to remember his especially on this day, Decoration Day, on grounds that at one time he had been a member of the army.

Brownsville claims to be the best little city in Oregon and a dry town, too.

THIEF BEAT MRS. SHEA TO HER HIDDEN MONEY

Seattle, Wash., June 1.—The Seattle police were requested today to try to apprehend the thief who during yesterday afternoon entered the home of John England, near Alki Point, and carried away a package said to have contained $20,000 in bills. In the bundle there were nineteen $1,000 bills, one $500 bill and five $100 bills. The room in which the money was hidden was ransacked and articles of clothing thrown about in confusion. The missing money belonged to Mrs. A. J. Shea, of Duluth, Minn., who is visiting Mrs. England.

Mrs. Shea came to Seattle last Thursday with the intention of investing in Seattle real estate. The money which was stolen had been sent to Mrs. Shea by registered mail by her husband, who is now on his way to Seattle. Mrs. Shea intended to deposit the money in a bank, but neglected to do so, and when leaving the house yesterday to make some purchases down town, placed the envelope containing the fortune in the mattress of her bed. Upon returning about 7 o'clock in the evening she found the door to the China closet open and the silver scattered about on the floor. Without waiting to ascertain what was missing she rushed to her room and discovered that the envelope containing her money was missing.

SHE GOT FLOWERS FOR GRANDFATHER'S GRAVE

St. Louis, Mo., June 1.—Because she obtained a large bouquet of flowers for the grave of her grandfather, Mary Clipper, nine years of age, is at the House of Detention here today. Mary thought that her grandfather would be forgotten because he fell under the Confederate colors in the Civil war and determined that he should be fittingly remembered, the little girl contrived a way to get a large and costly memorial.

The child visited one of the leading florists of the city and represented that she was sent by another florist to fill a special order. Roses, lilies, ferns and carnations were turned over to her and with her arms loaded with the sweetly-scented load she made her way to the cemetery. After placing the flowers upon the grave, the child returned to the florist shop and made confession. She was placed under arrest.

LUMBERMEN'S STRIKE IS A PEACEFUL ONE

Sisson, Cal., June 1.—Sheriff Howard today reported that the striking lumbermen in the McCloud river district are orderly and are planning no forceful demonstration. Contrary to the reports that have gained circulation, the men are quiet and have made no disturbance. The situation is unchanged.
