GENERAL MERCHANDISERS

We would like to say to the people in East Salem that we can sell groceries, hardware and drugs just a little cheaper than the down town stores. We have a complete line of fresh, up-to-date goods, carefully selected. Also a feed store at No. 1160, and we defy any merchant to give you better delivery service.

We own 133 feet of property covered by buildings, including our stores, from which we are receiving an income, and while we are in a position to buy as cheap as other merchants our expenses are considerably lower.

So a trial order will convince you of what we say relative to prices; quality of goods and delivery.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY DR. LINSLOT

June 6, 1909.

The Power of the Tongue, James 3:1-12.

Golden Text—Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles. Prov. 21:25.

This chapter continues the thought of last week's lesson, based on the previous chapter.

Verse 1.—What class of persons are most likely to want to rule, or be "masters," those engaged in good works or those who neglect them?

Will one who is in rapt love with his fellows want to rule them, or will he judge them harshly?

Unfaithful Christians always put up a high standard for others; what effect will that have upon the standard with which God will measure them? (See Matt. 7:1-5.)

Verse 2.—How much of our trouble and how much of the trouble we make for others is caused by our tongues?

... a man does not do any harm by his words, is he very apt to do any otherwise?

If a man says hard and unkind things about his neighbors, and intentionally wounds the feelings of others by his words, is he necessarily a bad man?

Is the control of the tongue the key to the control of the entire man?

Verse 3.—It takes an iron bit to control a horse, what is the "bit" which will effectually control the tongue?

In what respect is an ungoverned tongue like a runaway horse with a broken bit, and what are generally the results in each case? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 4.—Is it actually so, that the tongue is to the man what the rudder is to the ship, that is, does the tongue govern the influence of the man?

Is it necessary at all times to watch our tongues, compelling them to refrain from wrong words, and to use right words; just as the man at the wheel of a ship controls the rudder with vigilant watchfulness?

Is the tongue capable of setting a church or a neighborhood all ablaze with scandal, just as a match may set fire to a city?

Verse 6.—What are some of the many "iniquities" which the tongue can cause?

Can you recall and mention some of the moral poison emitted by an evil tongue?

Do persons with an evil tongue always draw their inspiration from "hell"?

Verse 7.—Man can do very wonderful things, in training animals and controlling the forces of nature, but cannot "tame" the human tongue, nor destroy its poison; to whom may we apply to have this effectually done?

Verse 9-12.—If a man uses his tongue both for bad and for good, for "blessing and cursing," does this not stamp him as a ran... hypocrite? Is it possible for a person with an evil tongue to be at the same time well pleasing to God?

Lesson for Sunday, June 13, 1909. Heroes of Faith. Heb. 11:1-40.
