PUBLIC SCHOOL PARADE

The great annual closing public school parade was held this afternoon as advertised, and was a great success. The weather was perfect, the turnout large and everything was carried out according to program. A very pretty surprise was tendered the teachers at the Board of Trade rooms at 3:30, when an informal reception was held at that time, presided over by Assistant Superintendent Powers. Ice cream and refreshments were served to the entire faculty of the Salem public schools. The program included a number of addresses on manual training, needlework and domestic science, which are to be introduced in the public schools this coming year.

MEAT INSPECTION AT ST. LOUIS A FARCE

[United Press Leased Wire.] Washington, June 11.—Investigation of the charges that meat inspectors in the government stock yards at St. Louis disregard the regulations will be made by the department of agriculture, according to an announcement made today. The charges were made by J. F. Harms, an inspector, who resigned after working in the yards for 18 months. In a letter to Secretary Wilson, Harms declared that the disregard for government regulations was of a decidedly sensational nature. He said "government meat inspection at St. Louis is a farce."

PORTLAND WINS IN FOURTEEN INNINGS

Clyde Goodrich, the big day clerk at the Hotel Willamette, has just returned from Portland, after a three-days' visit in that city. Clyde says that he put in three hours yesterday afternoon at the Vaughn street ball grounds, along with 1000 other ball fans, rooting for the Portland Pacific coast team, which was tying up with the Sacramento bunch in a 14-inning contest. To see Portland handle the ball is a sure and quick cure for weak eyes, according to the hotel clerk's enthusiastic description of the game yesterday. He said the seats in the grand stand and bleachers were useless after the fourth inning, as the fans were on their feet most of the time. In the first inning Portland allowed three runs on errors of Olson, but they soon came out of it, and in the sixth inning things began to look brighter for Portland. Portland won by a score of 4 to 3.

SALEM HIGH TO MEET THE CLAM DIGGERS

The Salem high school will make an attempt to wrest honors from the Washington college tomorrow afternoon on Willamette field, and if they succeed the state championship will stay right here in Salem. The Washington bunch are ball players clear through, and have won ten straight games played with different college teams. The Salem high school boys are not going to back down for the reason the visiting team promises to be a hard nut to crack, but will play it to a standing finish and beat 'em if possible. The Salem high school boys have had bad luck all through the season, and the teams which they have played in this city from outside colleges, have nearly all been either extremely easy marks or something entirely out of the Salem high school's class. The Washington college team, however, is not to be second rated, as they have the goods to show for their reputation as ball players, and if the Salem high school boys do succeed in getting the plum, it will be a great victory.

CONTENDING FOR NEXT CONVENTION

[United Press Leased Wire.] Buffalo, N. Y., June 11.—The meeting place of the next conference of Charities and Corrections will be settled tonight or tomorrow. Denver, Los Angeles, St. Louis and Detroit are making a hot fight for the next meeting, and today their chances appear to be about even. The committee on organization, which was announced today, includes W. A. Gates, of Berkeley, Cal., secretary of the State Board of Charities and Corrections.

Notice of Street Assessment.

Notice is hereby given that the common council of the city of Salem, Oregon, will at or about 8 o'clock p. m. on the 14th day of June, 1909, at the common council chambers at Salem, Oregon, proceed to assess upon each lot or parcel of land liable therefor, its proportionate share of the cost of improving Winter street in the city of Salem, Oregon, from a point 1 1/2 feet south of the south rail of the railroad track of the Southern Pacific Company, where it crosses said Winter street at the intersection of Winter street and Trade street to the north curb line of Mill street. All persons interested in said assessment shall appear at said time before said common council and present objections, if any they have, to said assessment, or file the same with the recorder within the following five days, and apply to said common council within five days from said date for the privilege if they so desire, to make said improvement in lieu of their assessment. Done by order of the common council of the city of Salem, Oregon, the 7th day of May, 1909. W. A. MOORES, City Recorder.

Portlanders are surprised at themselves to find out how nice the people of the state would be to them, if they would just try to be friendly.

HAVE LIVELY SCRAP ON BIG TRANSPORT

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Francisco, June 11.—"Demon" Martin, of the ninth United States cavalry, said to be a brother of Denver Ed. Martin, and Messboy Edward Conklin, of the transport Thomas, were the principals in a furious 6-minute battle pulled off on the high seas, while the Thomas was en route to this port. The big government steamer arrived at her dock late yesterday, and the story of the battle was told by several of the enthusiastic spectators.

The mill was a grueling one, and was declared a draw by the referee. Conklin, however, had two broken ribs repaired at the ship's hospital, caused by the negro's terrific punches in the second round. Shortly before the transport sailed Martin's dusky comrades of the Ninth are said to have cleaned up considerable coin as the result of a match between their husky and a champion heavyweight of the Philippines.

"Little Joe" Simon seems to be a pretty large man.

Men Past Fifty in Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland, and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it, and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." J. C. Perry.

EACH ONE SAYS THE OTHER IS A THIEF

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Jose, Cal., June 11.—Deputized by the sheriff of Scranton, Pa., to come to the Pacific coast and arrest J. W. Morrill on a charge of perpetrating a fraudulent mining deal, George W. Wieland, a wealthy timberman of Pennsylvania, is himself in the custody of the courts today, having spent part of last night in jail before being able to raise $10,000 bail.

Wieland arrived here several days ago, and had Morrill arrested on a charge of having defrauded John Rossin, of Scranton, Pa., in connection with some mining property. Morrill secured his release on bail, and yesterday swore to a complaint charging Wieland with felony embezzlement.

In answer to a charge of embezzlement of stock in the Monjar Mining Company, valued at $41,500, Wieland entered a plea of not guilty, and, after several hours in jail, was released on bail. Morrill also filed civil action to recover the money he alleges Wieland embezzled, and both cases must be heard before it is determined which man shall be the prisoner, and which shall be the jailer when the pair return to Pennsylvania.

Even a dyspeptic can eat and enjoy Cottolene food without the after-pangs of indigestion. Once give Cottolene a fair trial and you'll banish lard from your kitchen forever.
