

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LNSCOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB.

(Copyright, 1908, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

June 13, 1909.
 Heroes of Faith. Heb. xi:1-40.
 Golden Text—Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Heb. xi:1.
 Verses 1-3—In what respects are faith and hope similar?
 If a desirable thing is possessed by faith, does that give as much, or similar, satisfaction, as the possession of the thing itself?
 What is the ground of our faith, that "the worlds were framed by the word of God?"
 Why do we admire the men of faith of past years?
 Verses 4, 5—Abel had a truly religious nature; now was this nature the result of his faith, or was his faith the result of his nature?
 Does this record mean that Enoch's translation was directly caused by a specific act of faith, or that his general life of faith made him such a good man that God translated him without death?
 Verse 6—Faith is sometimes based upon outward evidence; sometimes upon personal revelation; sometimes upon intuition, and sometimes upon composite grounds; what moral or spiritual qualities, therefore, are necessary for becoming a man of faith? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

 Why is faith necessary in order to please God?

Verses 7—What was Noah's faith based upon, and wherein was his faith meritorious?

Verses 8-12—What was the difference, if any, between Abraham's faith and that of the Pilgrim fathers, when they left the old country for the American land of promise?

I take it that Abraham, and the Pilgrim fathers, while in communion with God, felt a drawing to go to the rich country in the distance about which they had heard; that they took this drawing to be the voice of God; and in this faith they started out; what evidence is there that their faith was true, and that such faith is always dependable?

Verses 13-16—Why is it that all nations and peoples, in all times, so far as we have any record, believed in and "desire a better country, that is an heavenly?"

Verses 17-19—Give from memory the account of Abraham offering up his son Isaac.

What is the particular virtue, in Abraham obeying God in the matter of offering up Isaac?

Would it be a virtue or a vice in these days, if any man should do the same thing as Abraham did?

Verses 20-31—Suppose the persons mentioned in these wonderful verses, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses and Rahab, had been lacking faith in God, in these critical moments of their lives, what would have been the difference in the results?
 Does faith in God always make the present happy, and picture in glowing colors the future?

Verses 32-40—Have men distinguished for their faith always been noted for their goodness?

This is a thrilling account of the exploits of the man of faith; give me an account of the achievements of men noted for their lack of faith.
