ROOSEVELT WANTS AN ELEPHANT

(By Warrington Dawson, Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)
Nairobi, British East Africa, June 22.—Colonel Roosevelt has not yet satisfied his ambition to kill an elephant, according to reports brought here today by a messenger from the American ex-president's camp.

The members of the colonel's party are in fine health, and are enjoying themselves immensely, the messenger stated. They are having good sport, and encountering many experiences similar to those of their former hunting trips.

Kermit Roosevelt has achieved fame among the native members of the party by killing the largest lion brought down by the hunters.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best on the Market.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and find it to be the best on the market," says E. W. Tardy, editor of the Sentinel, Gainesboro, Tenn. "Our baby had several colds the past winter and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always gave it relief at once and cured it in a short time. I always recommend it when opportunity presents itself." ANNUAL CONVENTION W. C. T. U. AT STAYTON

The annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in Stayton on June 16 and 17, with over 30 delegates and many visitors in attendance. The report of the department superintendents, and also the report of the corresponding secretary, showed that a great deal of work had been done during the past year, along the lines of press work, gospel temperance meetings and increasing memberships.

March has also been done along the line of better legislation, and in developing the interest in juvenile work. Mrs. Henrietta Brown, of Albany, and state president, took a prominent part in the convention, and her address was listened to with great interest and appreciation. The county officers for the ensuing year are Mrs. Ora Baer, Turner, president; Mrs. Mary W. Rhodes, Stayton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. McClellan, Stayton, recording secretary; Mrs. Osborne, Turner, treasurer; Mrs. Oliver, Stayton, vice-president.

Mrs. Taylor, of Silverton, was elected delegate-at-large to attend the state convention at Hood River, and Mrs. Allen, of Stayton, alternate. The memorial service on Thursday afternoon was a most interesting and impressive one, held in memory of Mrs. R. M. Steel, Miss Bernice Pannis, Mrs. Ward Hicks and Mrs. Thompson, who were "called home" during the past year. Much credit is due the people of Stayton for their liberal hospitality in entertaining the convention in such a splendid manner.

MASKED MEN HELD UP EXPRESS MESSENGER

Green Bay, Wis., June 22.—Two masked men held up Night Messenger Kade of the United States Express Company last night, securing $5000 and making their escape. Kade was counting the money in the transfer room here when the holdup took place. There is no clue to the identity of the bandits.

TURNER CAMP MEETING BEGINS THURSDAY JUNE 24, ENDS JULY 4.

The annual convention and camp-meeting services held each year in the tabernacle at Turner will open Thursday, June 24, at 7:30 p. m., and will continue to and including Sunday, July 4. The camp-meetings and conventional services, although conducted under the auspices of the Christian church, are participated in by all religious denominations of the Protestant faith, and are usually attended by hundreds from all parts of the state, scores of families from this and other cities make an annual outing period of it, remaining in camp throughout the convention.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday programs will be devoted principally to the work of the ministerial association, during which the subjects of "The Relation of Man to the Church" will be the prevailing theme for discussion. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will be given over to the work of the Oregon Christian Missionary convention. Thursday, July 1, will be taken up by the Oregon Christian Bible School Association; Friday, July 2, will be Educational Union Day, and Sunday, July 4, closing day. Rev. E. W. Thornton, of Long Beach, Cal., will be the principal speaker on the program each day, and will be the "live wire" of the convention on active Bible work.

Our Discount Department

WE DO BUSINESS

not for the convenience of ourselves altogether, but rather for the profit to ourselves without too great an expense to our patrons, and at the same time affording them a most convenient and satisfactory service.

We find our daily discount service a most popular one. This provides for a committee of our directors who call at the bank daily and in conjunction with the executive officers pass promptly on the merits of loans offered.

The daily discount committee plan enables us to thwart the dangerous practice plan where authority is sometimes assumed alone by a president or a cashier, and at the same time enables us to give the business man a quick and decisive answer. New loans, of course, are sometimes held up for further investigation, but in matters of established credit we deal very promptly.
