SING FAT SAVED MAYOR

[United Press Leased Wire.] Sausalito, Cal., June 23.—To Sing Fat, celestial dispenser of onions and cabbages, the municipality of Sausalito today probably owes the life of its chief executive. Sing rescued his honor from a watery tomb in a municipal reservoir and is the hero of the city. While strolling through the suburbs last evening Mayor Jacques Thomas stepped to measure the depth of the water in the reservoir. In some unexplainable way his foot slipped and he found himself floundering in the chilly water. The sides of the tank were of cement, and in addition to this were moss-grown and slippery. The mayor decided he had little chance of escaping through his own efforts and while he paddled about he made the hills resound with robust calls for help. Sing was plodding along the road with his baskets swung over his shoulder. Prompt to respond, he thrust his basket pole to the shivering dignitary and, after a series of muscular feats brought the mayor to land at the end of the staff. Largesse was bestowed and each went his way.

SHOT BY POLICE CAPTAIN

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Francisco, June 23.—Edward McKenna and George Greenwood, who witnessed the shooting of Bernard Lagan by Captain Michael Conboy early today, stated this afternoon that it was the police officer whom the young merchant was attempting to assist when he was shot. Lagan found Conboy holding to a post in the street, they said, and when he tried to assist him the officer, frenzied with drink, shot him down. Conboy became intoxicated while celebrating the birth of a granddaughter. Miss Nina Conboy, daughter of the imprisoned officer, is at the city jail this afternoon caring for her father, who is in a semi-conscious condition.

GERMAN EXPERIMENTS ON ELECTRIC FARMING

Berlin, June 23.—Emperor William is backing a series of experiments in "electrical farming" which he originated, stated today he believes will revolutionize all agriculture and horticultural industries. Partial details of the plan were made known today. The fields in which the experiments are being made are strung with a network of wires, bearing a moderate electric current. The atmosphere and the earth are saturated with the current, which is provided by a 250,000 volt plant, and it is claimed that all plants grow and mature more rapidly under this stimulation. Hoechsternmann claims also that the yield of electrified land is proportionately greater than the yield of land cultivated under ordinary conditions. The current, he says, does away with the necessity of fertilizer, renewing the soil at less expense than is demanded by the cheap methods now in vogue.

RACING WILL CONTINUE ACROSS THE BORDER

[United Press Leased Wire.] San Diego, Cal., June 23.—Contrary to the report that President Diaz of Mexico has set himself against racing at Tia Juana, near the American boundary line, directors of the track association handling the matter announced today that they awarded a contract for the construction of track, grandstand and stables to Earl Towe of Los Angeles, on a bid of $169,000. Towe left here today for Tia Juana with President D. R. Worden and other directors. He said that he would begin work next week.

LONE HIGHWAYMAN HOLDS UP STAGE

[United Press Leased Wire.] Nevada City, Cal., June 23.—Holding up the Alleghany-Dowaleville stage, five miles from here early today a lone highwayman robbed passengers of $200 in cash and all of their jewelry and carried off a Wells Fargo express box containing $1400. Sheriff Walker with a posse is pursuing the bandit. The robber was the most daring road agent who has operated in the west in late years. He carelessly flung his gun on the ground while searching the passengers and went about his work unarmed. None of his victims dared resist, despite the fact that the man was unarmed. After searching all of the passengers and seizing the Wells Fargo box the robber compelled the driver to whip up his horses and remained standing in the road until the vehicle was out of sight. Notice to Contractors. Notice is hereby given that sealed bids for work and materials required in the extension of kitchen of building known as dining hall, reshingling portion of dining hall, erection of building to be known as amusement hall, rasing roof and of re-roofing building known as building No. 25, all situate at the Oregon State Insane Asylum Cottage Farm, near Salem, Oregon, will be received by the Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum until July 7, 1909, at 3 p. m., at which hour all bids will be opened by the undersigned at the executive chambers, Salem, Oregon, in the presence of the board. All bids must be accompanied by certified check in a sum of not less than ten (10 per cent) per cent of the amount of the bid and made payable to the undersigned. Envelopes containing bids must be sealed and marked "Bids for the Improvements at the Oregon State Insane Asylum Cottage Farm." Plans and specifications may be examined at the office of Louis R. Hazeltine, architect, Murphy building, Salem, Oregon, or at the executive chambers, State Capitol, Salem, Oregon. Bids will be received on each piece of work separately and on the whole. The Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 22d day of June, 1909. C. N. McARTHUR, Clerk of the Board.

HOCH DER KAISER LIKewise THE CZAR

Berlin, June 23.—That he and the czar hold the destinies of their respective nations in the hollows of their hands, and are directly responsible for the faithful execution of their trusts, was the declaration of the kaiser in a speech at Hamburg, according to dispatches received here today. The members of the Reichstag who are obstructing the government's efforts at financial reform were the objects of the note of absolutism sounded by the kaiser. He declared that the progress of the nation, in weal or woe, was his direct charge, and that the opponents of the financial policy are guilty of unpatriotic actions. The speech is the cause of much discussion here.

ANOTHER COAL MINE

(Continued from Page 1) says that three men are dead, six teen badly hurt. Later advices say that four men are dead, seven fatally injured and sixteen badly hurt as result of the explosion. It is feared that sixty men who are still in the mine will die in the fire or from the effects of after-damp. One rescue party was able to do effective work up to noon but after that was repulsed by gas. The mine three weeks ago was pronounced in first class condition.

CLOTHING CAUGHT FIRE GIRL BADLY BURNED

Miss Irene Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin of this city, was badly burned last Saturday morning while ironing. In replenishing the fire in the stove, a coal dropped out and evidently caught in the bottom of her kimono, where it was unnoticed until she walked over to the sink, when the motion fanned the scorching goods into flame, which flashed over her clothing instantly. Before the blazing clothing could be torn off or the fire put out her limbs were so badly burned that until Tuesday morning there was but little hope of her recovery. She is being cared for at the home of her sister, Mrs. Sim Swarts, under the direction of Dr. Morse. She is now out of danger but her recovery will necessarily be slow.
