Miss Agnes Gibson and Mr. Roy Miller were married Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Mr. D. Gibson, in Highland. Oregon grape and carnations were used in decorating the parlor, where the ceremony took place under a large lovers' knot. The bride, who is a pretty brunette, wore a lovely lace gown and a full length tulle veil secured with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of bride's roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Miller, a sister of the groom, wore cream colored tulle and carried pink carnations. Mr. A. Norton, Beatrice Gibson, a little niece of the bride, as flower girl, made a pretty picture in a dainty lingerie frock, carrying a basket filled with sweet peas and fern. Just before the ceremony Miss Grace Scott sang "O, Promise Me." The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Thomas Gibson and the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. T. Babcock of the First Presbyterian church, before only immediate friends and relatives. A wedding dinner followed.

The bride is a recent arrival from the east and is an accomplished young woman. The groom holds a responsible position in Rainier, Oregon, where they will make their home.

They left Wednesday afternoon for Seattle to attend the exposition, returning to Rainier the last of July.

The piano pupils of Prof. T. S. Roberts gave a pleasing recital Thursday night to a few of their friends at Mr. Roberts' home on Mill street. The program was varied and the pupils won much applause for their work. Those taking part were Esther Englehart, Fayte Brown, Lucille DeWitt, Bernice Reid, Nellie Roberts, Mildred Reid, Martha Koppin, Beulah Roberts, Pearl Rockhill, Frances Rudolph, Maurice Roberts.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday evening when Miss Beulah Eleanor, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Chase, was married to Mr. Bert S. Hewitt, at the home of the bride's parents on Seventeenth and D streets. Immediately preceding the wedding march, Miss Marguerite Mors sang "Because," with piano accompaniment by Mr. Robert Eakin. The bride was attended by Miss Grace Cramer of Cleveland, Ohio, as bridesmaid and Mr. Ralph Matthews, a student of Berkeley, was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. T. Babcock beneath a bower of ferns and a shower of marguerites. The bride was beautifully attired in a pearl gray traveling costume. After good wishes and congratulations a dainty and unique luncheon was served in the dining room by a number of the bride's most intimate girl friends. Later in the evening Miss Nina Brown of Portland served punch beneath a bower of sweet brier and pink roses. The decorations were exceptionally pretty, ferns and marguerites being extensively used in the reception room and parlor. In the dining room the color scheme was carried out with pink roses. The young people received many gifts, including much cut glass and silver.

The bride is well known in Salem and is very popular with a large circle of friends, who will greatly miss her from among their number.

Mr. Hewitt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Hewitt of this city and has for a number of years been connected with the Western Electric Telephone and Telegraph company of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt left the same evening for a short honeymoon at Cascadia, after which they will return to Salem for a few days. They will then go to their home in North Yakima, by way of Seattle, where they will be entertained by Miss Grace Cramer.

Miss Weller's classes in music have occupied the platform at the Christian church for three nights the past week to the delight of large audiences of friends and to the public generally. On Monday evening the soloists given honors were Miss Agnes West, who made her first appearance as a pianist; Miss Ola Arnold, who appeared in two numbers, and Miss Katherine Carson, who rendered three piano numbers. Miss Minnie Prior of California, who is the guest of Mrs. William Baker, and who has a beautiful contralto voice, sang several numbers and received recalls from the delighted audience. Miss Marie Hutchins also played two very difficult renditions. Other well known players who appeared in quartets were Delbert Burton, Blanche Brown, Eleanor Colony, Althea Moores, Elsie Glase, Elsie Smith, Mrs. Schucking and Luene Moreland.

On Tuesday evening a class in the Dunning system of improved music study were granted diplomas. The class included Margaret Rodgers, Isola Smith, Lucille St. Pierre, Blanche Moffett and Leona Weidner. These young ladies were honored with floral gifts from their friends and gave evidences of their skill at the piano and their knowledge of musical science in many different forms. Each one played a selection and transposition of the same. Isola Smith, one of the graduates, distinguished herself in the "Shower of Stars." The entire program of the evening was made up by these young ladies, and when it is considered that they are mere misses in sort dresses, their range of ability was very great to hold the audience for an hour and a half. Mrs. Chas. Walters, who has a finely trained mezzo-soprano voice, gave several solos and received a number of encores. Mrs. Walters has recently come to Salem and has been given a very cordial greeting for her ability as a vocalist.

In presenting the certificates to the class Mr. Hofer spoke in the highest terms of the Dunning system and of what Miss Weller was accomplishing with it.

The concluding recital was given by Miss Weller's younger students Wednesday evening. Their numbers were musical and pleasing to a large number of their friends who were present. Excellent demonstrations were given of music reading, transpositions, and hand and voice training. Those taking part were Myrtle King, Dorothy Buckner, Clare Winkler, Jeannette Meredith, Hester Welch, Lenaper Wright, Gertrude Maurer, Louemna Waters, Teresa Fowie, Florence McDonald, Northrup Waters, Myrtle King, Ruth Bohannon and Isola Smith.

Mr. G. T. Vandecar, who has been with Barr Bros. jewelry store for the past two years, has taken a position as traveling salesman. He has resigned his position with the Salem firm and leaves on the second of July for New Jersey, where he enters the employ of a large wholesale jewelry house. He will also represent a watch-case manufacturing firm in Pennsylvania. He will make the Pacific territory, including Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. He commenced the jewelry business when he was only fifteen years old and has worked at it continuously for eleven years, eight years of which have been spent in this state. He was for two years in Southern Oregon and one year at Astoria before coming to Salem. Mr. Vandecar has one of the most winning and pleasing personalities that endears him to everyone with whom he comes in contact. He has a large circle of friends in this city, where he has been a member of the Illihee club and a life member of the Elks' lodge. Mrs. Vandecar is going to Coos bay for a visit while her husband is in the East, but after his return they expect to make their home in Los Angeles.

Miss Beatrice Shelton's piano pupils gave a large audience a delightful evening with another brilliant recital at the First Methodist church last night. Assisting them were Mrs. Charles S. Walters, soprano, and a trio composed of Miss Viola Vercler, pianist; Miss Georgabelle Booth, pianist, and Prof. T. S. Roberts, pipe violinist; Miss Georgabelle Booth, first being the "Liebestraum," from Liszt and their second "Meditation," by Mietzke. Features of the program were the playing of three quartets. The first, composed of Mrs. Nina Ringo, Mrs. Vivian Foster, Miss Myrtle Duncan and Miss Bertha Duncan, gave a beautiful rendition of the "Caprice-Heroique," by De Kotski; the "Rhapsodie-Hongroise," by Liszt, was given with fine effect by Mrs. Nina Ringo, Meurice Roberts, Miss Myrtle Duncan and Mrs. Vivian Foster, at two pianos. The third quartet was composed of Miss Maud Hill, Miss Lela Slater, Miss Blanche Knox and Miss Zoe Toothacre, who played "Fest Overture," by Leutner, in an equally delightful manner. The solo numbers were given by Miss Bernice Clark, Miss Ruth Reed, Miss Lela Slater, Miss Lucile Staley, Miss Mary Pigler, Miss Gertrude Hunt and Miss Mabel Smith. Their excellent interpretations of difficult numbers held the interest of the large audience, and each received generous applause. Miss Gertrude Hunt and Miss Lucile Staley also won much applause for their number "Country Dance," by Nevin.

THRIFTY PREACHER HUSTLES FOR TRADE

[United Press Leased Wire.] Oakland, Cal., June 26.—To the deputies of the county clerk's office the daily presence of a handsome young woman near the license clerk's window has for many days been a matter of deep speculation. Various opinions advanced by the wise-ones of the office, however, were held up to ridicule today when the fact was learned that the girl was the scout of a progressive marrying parson, and was on the lookout for young couples who were in need of a third party to tie a marital knot.

The businesslike preacher is the Rev. Q. Harwood Pierce. He saw the opportunity to do a thriving business when recent statistics revealed the fact that the average number of marriage licenses issued from this office in a month was 350. He announced today that he would employ the young woman as long as she "turned in the business."

LEON LING STILL AVOIDS DISCOVERY

New York, June 26.—Chung Sin, room-mate of Leon Ling, murderer of Elsie Sigel, was placed under examination by the police again today. Chung continued his contradictory statements, and the officers were unable to secure any information that might lead to the capture of the fugitive.

BAPTISTS CAPTURE PORTLAND

[United Press Leased Wire.] Portland, Or., June 26.—Portland has surrendered to hundreds of Baptists from every state north of the Mason and Dixie line, and the army of invasion will hold undisputed possession until their convention, one of the greatest gatherings ever participated in by the Northern Baptist convention, reaches an end here.

With Harry Pratt Judson, president of the convention, and also president of the University of Chicago, in the chair, the first session was held last night. More than 100 delegates were in attendance. Immediately after President Judson called the convention to order, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of the "White Temple," the church in which the delegates met, delivered the address of welcome. With the arrival of every train the number of delegates continues to swell, and it is predicted that 1200 of them, with power to vote, will be in attendance. Financial problems that are worrying the convention will get much attention.
