Will Hang Tomorrow—Yesterday afternoon Governor Benson, in order to enable Joe Anderson, the man who is to hang at the penitentiary tomorrow, to have all the chances possible to prove that he should not be executed, ordered him examined as to his sanity by Drs. Smith and Griffith, who reported him sane. There will be no interference by Governor Benson with the execution tomorrow, and Anderson will hang.

Prominent School Worker—Miss Ada M. Fleming, one of the best informed women in the United States on musical work for public schools, passed through here Tuesday from Seattle on her way to Albany to attend the teachers' association convention. On her return she will stop off for a short time and will be the guest of Miss Minnetta Mager. Miss Fleming represents the musical publications of Ginn & Co. and visited Salem last year.

Henry Here Today—Francis J. Henry and party arrived in this city last night at 9 o'clock, and stopped at the Hotel Willamette over night, leaving this afternoon for Portland. The noted prosecuting attorney is in the best of health, and his face shows signs of exposure to the sun. He talked considerably of the many beautiful places he passed through on his way up from California, and especially through the Willamette valley. Attorney L. H. McMahan accompanied Mr. Henry and wife in a short sight-seeing tour in the automobile through Salem.

It Beats the World—In answer to Manager Lyon's letter regarding the checking facilities in the union depot in Portland, William U'Ren, who complained to the railroad commission recently, sent another communication to the commission, in which he says the depot checking facilities are bad, and that he can produce many other sufferers to prove it, if necessary. In a paragraph of the letter, Mr. U'Ren states as follows regarding the depot manager's statement, made in an answering letter, in which it is said Mr. U'Ren is "unaccustomed to traveling." "Since 1876 I have traveled, with baggage, by rail, steamer, sailing vessel and stage something more than 60,000 miles. The quickest service I have ever received in the past year, under Mr. Lyon's management of the union depot, required more time than the most wearisome wait I ever had at any other station in the United States, Canada, England, South Africa or Hawaii."

Try Crystalets—For the breath. For sale at: Meyer's barber shop, Eckerlen's, Waters' cigar store, Adolph's cigar store, Dick Madison's, The Spa, Willamette Hotel, The Council, Talkington's, The Court.

GOVERNOR FOLK MAY PROSECUTE

(United Press Leased Wire.) St. Louis, Mo., July 1.—That former Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, who obtained the bribery indictment against Ellis Wainwright, a wealthy broker of this city, will have an opportunity to convict his man, is rumored today.

Wainwright, who has been a fugitive from justice since 1902, is at present in Europe. It was announced today that he will return to face trial on the charge preferred against him, and the state probably would employ Folk as special prosecutor to take charge of the case.

Folk obtained Wainwright's indictment when he was United States circuit attorney. Wainwright was charged with having signed, jointly with Henry Nicholas and Charles H. Turner, notes for $75,000 and $60,000.

Nicholas was successful in his trial and was freed. Turner recently died, and it is said that ante-mortem statement made by him will furnish much material for the prosecution of Wainwright.

PORTLAND MILKMAN KILLED BY TRAIN

(United Press Leased Wire.) Portland, July 1.—Miscalculating, apparently, the speed with which a heavy Southern Pacific train was bearing down upon him, Charles Timms, a dairyman living near Sellwood, attempted to cross the tracks at the intersection of Spokane avenue today and was instantly killed by the train, while his nephew, Clarence Heilt, who was also thrown from the wagon in which they were riding, died three hours later.

Timms was thrown fully 100 feet and was dead when W. A. Guthrie, the only eye witness of the tragedy, reached him, while the boy was hurled nearly 300 feet, and nearly every bone in his body was broken.

NO TROUBLE PASSING BILL FOR THEIR PAY

(United Press Leased Wire.) Olympia, July 1.—The house this morning passed the senate resolution continuing the old investigation committee in force to investigate all other offices and departments, and passed a bill appropriating $40,000 for the expenses of such investigation.

Gibson's Barber Shop—the best.

First July License—A marriage license was issued today by County Clerk Allen to A. E. Johnson, aged 48, and Leon Kinley, aged 37, both of Salem.

Forty-Eight Licenses—There were 48 marriage licenses issued in Marion county for the month of June. If the month had not been shy a day, the score might have reached the half century mark.

Bought Corner Lot—The German Building Society has purchased the corner north of the Hotel Willamette for $8000. The deed filed shows the area purchased to be 57 feet on Commercial street and on Ferry street it extends back to the alley.

Special Rates for Cherry Fair—The S. P. company will give the special rate of a fare and a third from Portland and Roseburg, and all intermediate points, for round trip tickets to Salem July 8, 9 and 10, the days of the cherry fair, and 'tousands will take advantage of it. The committee is also arranging for the steamer to run an excursion from Independence on the last day of the fair, coming down Saturday morning.

Big Crowd to Eugene—Eugene is going to have a grand celebration, beginning Saturday next and ending Monday night. A fine program has been arranged, and those who fancy there will an idle moment in all that time are not acquainted with Eugene. There ought to be, and probably will be, a big delegation go from Salem. It is high time all the valley towns cultivated their neighbors, and pull together for the valley's interests.

CRAZY ABOUT KETCHELL

KETCHELLITIS!

That is what ails the fight loving public of San Francisco. It has simply gone bug-house, dippy, dotty, over the Michigan boy, and that's the answer to the present odds of 1 to 2 that he again puts the crusher on Billy Papke at the Mission-street arena next Monday afternoon.

When Jimmy Britt and Battling Nelson were training for their memorable battle at Colma they drew some audiences, but the crazy mobs that flock to Ketchell's quarters every day make the Britt-Nelson crowds look like a cabinet meeting.

The oldest fight fans cannot recall a time when such tremendous interest was shown in the training work of a fighter as is being exhibited in the case of Ketchell. His sensational work of the past year, the great interest that his two victories over Confessor Jack O'Brien have aroused, and his match with Johnson, have set him up on a higher pedestal than even that once great native son, Jim Corbett, ever occupied.

But to get back to the present odds, that they are false the wise bettors admit, and they attribute them solely to the enthusiasm that Ketchell's training performances arouse. The assassin's work is so dazzling and so sincere that the ordinary bugs are so overcome by it that they fail to consider the other fellow at all. They seem to forget that Papke once knocked out Ketchell and they also seem to forget that the thunderbolt has not only fully recovered from the illness that made him show so poorly against Ketchell in their third fight, but that he is a better man now than when he whipped Ketchell.

The dope and present condition naturally should make Ketchell the favorite, but the present odds are wrong, because Papke has a better chance than the betting allows him.

Ketchell and Manager Britt, of course, can see nothing to it. The champion will win, but not until after a hard battle. They are not inclined to minimize Papke's chances. They admit that he is a tough customer, that he is strong, game and a terrific puncher, but they think that Ketchell has a shade over him on all three propositions. Despite these, they argue, present odds are too long.

That eastern men has much to do with making Ketchell a top heavy factor is certain. His performances in New York and Philadelphia against O'Brien have turned the heads of the Atlantic coast fans and they stand ready to plunge on the champion, hook, sipker and line. That accounts, in a large measure, for the quick shifts from 10 to 8 down to 10 to 6 and finally to 2 to 1, with an excellent chance of going still farther. Many Papke admirers are holding off in expectation of a better price, which accounts for the present tight wagering. There are thousands of dollars of Ketchell money in the customers' hands, but they can't get it down. One sport tried to place $500 at 10 to 8 on Ketchell last night, but was informed that many commissions at that price, amounting to thousands of dollars were ahead of him on the waiting list.

Papke is worrying less over the odds than is Ketchell. They can't go any too low to suit him, as the Illinois boy, who is as confident as ever that he will whip Ketchell, intends to lay a comfortable wager on himself, and, of course, wants to get the best price possible.

Coffroth is being floored with orders for reservations and the greatest crowd that ever packed into his arena is assured.

That Ely (Nevada) offer to Ketchell of $30,000, win, lose or draw, to fight Sam Langford, is not receiving much consideration from Ketchell just now, because he is too busy getting ready for Papke. "One job at a time for me," said Ketchell. "If I get over the Papke burdle all right, then I'll talk to the Ely promoters."

DELIGHTED WITH THE NEW Schram FRUIT JAR DISGUSTED WITH ANY OLD WAY THROW AWAY YOUR MASON JARS TREAT YOUR FRUIT RIGHT Attend the demonstration now in progress at this store of the famous Schram Automatic Fruit Jar and learn what fruit jar perfection really is. Both sealing and unsealing with the Schram Automatic Fruit Jar is like child's play. No screwing or twisting, just press the top down and the jar is instantly sealed. When unsealing insert the blade of a knife and raise the top. Best of all, each jar is not only easily sealed but perfectly sealed. You can be absolutely positive that your fruit will be in perfect condition. Fermentation and sourness are impossible in a Schram Automatic Fruit Jar because it is sealed air-tight—the only jar of which this is true. Schram Jars complete cost practically the same as the screw top jars, and in the long run are the cheaper because they mean freedom from all fruit jar troubles. Cans complete in themselves. No extra rubbers to be bought. It's to your advantage to attend this demonstration. See Court-St. window. Buren & Hamilton HOUSE FURNISHERS
