Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheeks of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native American medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers or for those broken down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mother to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It does no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

X-RAYS AND SMILES

All roads lead to Seattle, but fortunately they do not stop there.

The trouble with most classic music is that it needs a dose of vermifuge.

Simon is in, Lane out, which shows that the old Scotch proverb that "a mickle may come to be mayor."

Schively, Washington's insurance commissioner, a short time ago was "a peach," now he is impeached.

Portland claims a population of 280,000. Well, if she hasn't it, she will have it, so there is no use disputing it.

That opera singer thrown in jail for vagrancy at San Rafael, California, was evidently unable to cash any of her notes.

The railroad conductors ought to make a record in the prize ring. They are all deucedly clever, and have an awful punch.

Now comes the startling news that "the White House is too small." The voters should have thought of that when they elected Taft.

If, as is claimed, clothing is to be nearly doubled in price on account of the tariff, President Taft's warning will not prove foundationless.

There will be a galaxy of men without a full complement of fingers at the A. Y. P. Saturday. That is the sign and password for the railroad brakemen.

The suffragettes latest cry is "give us votes or we will not marry." Thus do they stand in their own light, and stiffen the backbones of the unmarried men.

All the towns are taking advantage of the Fourth falling on Sunday, to have a three-days' celebration. Even Salem, with her Cherry Fair, is to have "three of a kind."

J. Pierp Morgan is going to visit Alaska this summer. He is right in keeping his eye on his investments in that neck of Uncle Sam's dominions, for it is a good country to get "frozen out" in.

An exchange mentions a newsboys' celebration in Boston, and states that Jacob Talkofsky spoke for the boys. That's the proper kind of a spokesman, but most of them are "Talk-on-skys."

On account of the Washington laws that require a doctor's certificate of health before a marriage license can issue, Pendleton is becoming the Gretna Green for Eastern Washington. Many people will remember Pendleton with regret.

Mississippi is now after Standard Oil, seeking to restrain it from doing business in that state, and also to recover $11,000,000 penalties for violation of the anti-trust law. Since Texas showed the way the other states are willing to "butter their parsnips" by process of law.

OF COURSE HE DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED

Chico, Cal., July 2.—A practical joke may cost the life of C. H. Mills, a laborer, aged 25 years. Mills lies in a local hospital seriously wounded by a bullet from a revolver fired accidentally by Frank Brown, a bartender.

Mills entered Brown's saloon late yesterday. Brown, it is said, playfully pointed a soda bottle at him, whereupon Mills, joining in the spirit of the joke, threw up his hands.

"I give in. What do you want?" "Buy a drink," suggested Brown. Mills replied:

"That bottle won't make me buy anything."

Reaching beneath the counter, Brown is alleged to have drawn a revolver, saying:

"Well, perhaps this will make you change your mind."

In some manner the gun was discharged. Mills receiving the bullet in the groin. He was taken unconscious to the hospital, where the doctors said the wound might prove fatal.

Brown stated today that the whole affair was but horse play, and that he had no idea the gun was loaded.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. A Horrible Hold-Up.
"About ten years ago my husband was 'held up' in his work, health and happiness by what was believed to be hopeless constipation," writes Mrs. W. R. Lipscomb, of Washington, N. C. Many people with chronic throat and lung trouble have found comfort and relief in Foley's Honey and Tar, as it cures stubborn coughs after other treatment has failed. L. M. Ruggles, Reasoner, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pains in my lungs, and they are now as sound as a bullet." J. C. Perry.

Wanted energy is throwing away that which is good for the sake of nothing.
