

The Oil Stove With a CABINET TOP

The New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove differs from all other oil stoves.—It has a CABINET TOP. This means you can keep dishes and utensils within easy reach while cooking, and can keep food hot after removing it from the blaze.

From its wonderful burners to its racks for holding towels the

is without equal. Its principle of concentrated heat means that the work can be done quickly and without the kitchen being heated to an unbearable degree. Can be lighted instantly and turned "high," "low" or "medium" at will. Three sizes. With or without Cabinet Top. At your dealer's, or write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp comes as near a lamp perfection as it is possible to get. Gives a clear, bright light that reaches the farthest corner of a good-sized living-room. Well made throughout of nicked brass; perfectly safe and very ornamental. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LNSCOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB.

(Copyright, 1908, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

July 4th, 1909.

Paul's Second Missionary Journey.—Antioch to Philippi. Acts xv:36 to xvi:15.

Golden Text.—Come over into Macedonia and help us. Acts xvi:9. Verse 36.—Is it generally necessary to follow up any good work which we have commenced if we would make it a success?

Verses 37-39.—Would it have been wiser if Barnabas had first consulted Paul in the matter of taking Mark?

Barnabas was a relative of Mark; are we as good judges of the fitness of our relatives for an office as we are of the fitness of others? Why? Why is nepotism in government appointments, looked upon with suspicion?

Had Paul, probably, good reason for objecting to taking John and Mark with them? (See Acts xiii:13.)

If a man shows lack of courage, or tact, or faithfulness, in one position, does that disqualify him in any measure, from getting another, or from success when in another position?

If both Paul and Barnabas had been dupes of the man Jesus, would there have been this quarrel between them, and how would the matter likely have been settled? (This question must be answered by members of the club.)

When two Christians fall out, is one or both always to be blamed? Verses 40-41.—Did the dispute between these men work out for good, as it resulted in two missionary deputations instead of one?

By any process of reasoning can you conclude that God was back of this dispute, between these two godly men, so as to better work out his purposes?

Chap. xvi:1-3.—Should ministers, and other Christians, be on the lookout for young men who are fitted for the ministry, the same as business men are for good salesmen?

What can you say for, or against Paul circumcising Timothy, in view of the decision of the council at Jerusalem? (See Acts xv:1-29.)

In matters of habit, or ceremony, or non-essentials, is it well for us to give way to the views of others, sinking our own preferences when we can accomplish good by so doing? For example, you may oppose wearing "pig-tails" in this country, with wisdom, and yet to refuse to wear one in China may be great folly.

Verses 4-5.—What were the "decrees" of the elders which were at Jerusalem, and are these binding upon the church today? (See Acts xv:23-29.)

Is a church better with or without an elaborate creed? What did Jesus teach which is not included in righteousness, and the constant vision of God?

Will a church sound "in the faith" always be a magnet to draw others to it?

Verses 6-8.—Why did the Holy Spirit forbid them to preach in Asia and Bithynia, and would they have sinned had they done so?

When we are hindered providentially from doing certain good works, is that the Holy Spirit hindering us?

Verses 9-10.—How many methods does God adopt in leading us?

Does God in every emergency give us some sure guidance as to what we ought to do?

Was this vision just as clear a call from God, as though he had spoken personally?

Verses 11-12.—Does God direct the course of the Christian with absolute certainty, notwithstanding wind or sea?

Verses 13.—What is one of the first things an earnest Christian looks out for, when he moves into a new community?

Are women generally in the majority as earnest Christians?

Verses 14.—Are busy women generally more spiritual than those who have but little to do?

Should all girls be taught to earn their own living?

Is it easier for God to open the heart of an industrious person than that of an idler?

Verses 15.—If a person is inhospitable, or stingy, is that a sure sign of ungodliness?

NO, HE WON'T—

HE WILL DIE YOUNG

"Any boy," says an exchange, "who tumbles out of bed early, singing; who doesn't forget to wash his hands; who puts on his clothes quickly, dances out to his chores, and returns to his breakfast with a cheerful look and kind words for everybody; who helps his parents without growling; who is kind to his brothers and sisters; who has something to do every day and does it well, will in a very few years be one of the big men in the community in which he lives."

HE SHOWED THEM HOW THE FIREWORKS WORKED

Dufur was visited by another dangerous fire last Friday morning about 11 o'clock. This time it was the confectionary store of W. A. Cummings, just across the street from the Dispatch office that was burned. Mr. Cummings had a lot of fireworks displayed in his show window and he was standing a few feet away from this display and was showing some parties how a certain new kind of explosive worked, when sparks, either from this or the match he used to light it, flew and struck in the window display and almost instantly they were all in action throwing fire all over the room, setting fire to the stock, and fixtures and the building itself in innumerable places. As soon as it had started the cry of "fire" was raised and the fire company were on the ground in a very short time, and with the chemical engine and a stream of water from the near-by hydrant they soon had the flames under control, but not until the stock of goods was practically ruined. The damage to the building is estimated to be about $200, which loss is covered by insurance, but the loss and damage by both fire and water to the goods is about $1,000, with no insurance. The building is owned by L. M. Smith.—Dufur Dispatch.
