That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untold Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, is the latter to continue investigations until today we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. It would be a proper investigation to make of this conviction, to both the medical and the general public. The medicine which has been made from these roots is a powerful purgative, and is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the blood and the system. It is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the blood and the system. It is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the blood and the system.

Not less marvelous in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of various many peculiar affections, weakness and distressing symptoms, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is amply attested by thousands of testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of various ailments, such as irregular menstruation, pain, and other ailments. It is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the blood and the system. It is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the blood and the system.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the purest extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were originally with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances which are designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle's wrapper.

TESTIMONY FLOORED THE COUNT

Story of Orgies of the Knights of the German Round-Table Too Tough for Him.

(United Press Licensed Wire.) Berlin, July 7.—Collapsing under the ordeal of listening to witnesses testifying against him, in his trial for perjury, which began today, Prince Zu Von Eulenberg was taken to his castle at Lienenberg in a critical condition at noon today. The trial was adjourned, and it is doubted whether there is a possibility of its being completed, because of the condition of the defendant.

The prince is under indictment on two charges, perjury and inciting perjury. The charges grew out of the libel suit of Editor Hardin, who made an expose of the alleged orgies of the "knights" of the German round table. Eulenberg is accused of having sworn falsely against Hardin and of inducing other witnesses to perjure themselves in court.

Eulenberg is 68 years old and very feeble. He was taken to court this morning in an automobile, and carried to the machine to the court room in an invalid's chair. He writhed while witness after witness testified against him, and a few minutes before the noon recess was declared fell out of his chair in a faint. An ambulance was called, and he was hurriedly taken to his castle.

No other punishment than penal servitude is possible in the event of a conviction on the charges made against the prince. The maximum penalty is ten years.

Large crowds gathered about the court room today when the prince entered. The public was not admitted to the trial because of the nature of the evidence, but despite the fact that little regarding the proceedings could be learned on the outside, the throng remained in the streets, and there was great excitement when the prince was taken away in an ambulance.

"THREE WEEKS" JULY 16

A distinguished writer once said: "There is no joy but bitter tears will come to cast it like a fallen angel forth." and nowhere is this more truly illustrated than in Ellen Glyn's dramatization of her wonderful story, "Three Weeks," which will be presented under the same title at the Grand opera house Friday evening, July 16, by a company of distinguished players, headed by the great emotional actress, Miss Beryl Hope, and Mr. Harry C. Browne. The unhappy Queen of Sardinia in this book and play paid earth's inevitable price for her short lived happiness, and yet the whole of womanhood marvels and rebels at the idea and extend to her their universal sympathy. Miss Glyn has written a book that despite the host of adverse criticism it has received will open a line of thought to men and women that in some near future time will work a great good for the community at large. Contrary to all expectation she has written a love tragedy from the story that is full of human interest and yet has abundant dramatic force and action. One interesting feature of the play not contained in the book show her at home in Sardinia with the brute king, and serves to show the motive for her subsequent conduct. The play will be presented with elaborate scenic effects and every attention to detail.

DOES NOT WANT TO CALL AN ELECTION

(United Press Licensed Wire.) Bellingham, Wash., July 7.—The matter of the selection of a successor to Congressman Francis W. Cushman, who died in New York yesterday, will be left entirely to the legislature of the state, and no writ will be issued by Governor Hay, at this time, according to a statement made here by the governor, who arrived with his family in his auto from Seattle. If the matter is left in his hands by the legislature he will call an election in November. The people are tired of elections, the governor thinks, and he does not desire to inflict one upon them, if it can be helped.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
