

GAVE HIS LIFE TO SAVE ANOTHER

Guernseyville, Cal., July 7.—After a heroic attempt to save the life of an aged woman, Mrs. Mercer, who was believed to be penned in her burning home, Albert N. Kellogg, aged 20 years, of San Francisco, lies at the point of death from terrible burns about his head, face and shoulders. His father, Albert C. Kellogg, and Dr. William H. Vorsanger, upon receipt of the news, immediately left San Francisco in an automobile and engaged in a furious race with death to the bedside of the suffering boy.

Mrs. Mercer made her escape from the burning house by a rear door. Young Kellogg, believing her to be penned in by the flames, rushed into the building, which now had become a roaring furnace.

The door through which he entered was jammed, and he was forced to fight his way through a wall of flame to a window. Frightfully burned, he leaped to the ground, where he fell unconscious. His life is despaired of by the physicians who were called.

A PORTLAND MOTOR FASTEST ON COAST

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Seattle, Wash., July 7.—Of all the motor boats on the Pacific coast, Wolf II, of Portland, Ore., is the fastest, and J. Wolf, the owner, is being congratulated today on the victory won by the speedy little craft yesterday, when she defeated the Pacer.

The event was the second day's racing held by the Seattle Motor-boat Association on Lake Washington, over a 30-mile course. Wolf II, made the distance in 1:01:07.45, winning the championship of the coast very easily. As the boat won Saturday's race, third contest was unnecessary. In yesterday's race the Pacer finished 4 minutes, 37.25 seconds behind the victorious boat.
