DEMONSTRATION WEEK AT THE BUREN & HAMILTON STORE

Women, you are entitled to the most modern conveniences of the day to lessen the burdens of housework. Do not fail while visiting the Cherry Fair to spend a few minutes at the big furniture store, where good, comfortable "OLD HICKORY" chairs and rockers are provided for your comfort, and learn of these great labor saving devices.

Coffield Power Washers

Ironing the same day. Come and see it wash.

wash without rubbing. No imitation washboard inside like other machines. Nothing to wear or tear the clothes. Pays for itself many times over by the saving on the clothes. While it washes you rinse and hang out. With a Coffield you can do your

Schram Jars

No screwing or twisting, just press the top down and the jar is instantly sealed. Fermentation and sourness are impossible in a Schram Automatic Fruit Jar because it is sealed air tight—the only jar of which this is true. Come to the demonstration and learn all about them.

HOOSIER CABINET

A housekeeper who owns a Hoosier Cabinet knows she has all of the conveniences it is possible to get in a kitchen cabinet, and best of all, this kitchen work saver doesn't cost any more than a common cabinet. Made from selected oak and fitted with all the most modern kitchen conveniences. Come and learn all about them

FIRELESS COOKERS

Cook without fire, be comfortable, save your fuel and money. Food cooked in a fireless cooker is more delicious, nutritious and healthful. Will last a lifetime and so simple a child can operate them. With a Cookerette there is no danger of burning or over-cooking. Come to the demonstration and see how easily they are operated.

Pay Your Water Bills—Before the 10th of the month and get the 10 per cent discount. 7-7-4t

Another License—A marriage license was issued today to G. H. Dodge, aged 38, and May E. Hammock, aged 25, both residents of Salem.

Be There With Autos—All auto drivers are requested to be on hand with their autos promptly at 9:45 a. m. Thursday at the corner of State and Front streets to take part in the Cherry Fair parade. Bunting for decoration purposes can be procured at the Cherry Fair rooms on Liberty street.—Parade Committee.

Fair Weather Promised—The weather clerk got up this morning in a good humor, and kindly ordered fair weather for Thursday. Just what Salem is praying for, and in the light of recent events, should therefore get. He made assurance doubly sure by ordering the weather flag squeezed out this afternoon, so it can be dried during the night, and wave beneath clear skies tomorrow.

New Barber Shop—G. W. Needham has opened a barber shop at 441 State street. Mr. Needham needs no introduction to the people of Salem, as he spent most of his life here, and after an absence of about a year and a half has returned to Salem to make it his permanent home, and in his place of business you will always find courteous treatment and good work.

A Beauty—The E. S. Lamport Saddlery Company is going to present a $25 lady's astride saddle to the best young lady rider in the Cherry Fair parade tomorrow. It will be given to either a city or country girl who is pronounced the best rider. No favorites. This saddle is now on exhibition in their show window.

Want Him at the Pen—Requisition papers have been issued by Governor Benson on the state of Montana for the return of William A. King, an escaped convict from the Oregon penitentiary. King was serving time for the crime of rape and while given liberty as a trusty he took advantage of it and escaped. The officers of the penitentiary believe King is now located in Montana.

Put Out the Fire—Jack Green, the dignified porter of the Hotel Willamette, broke down the door of the shooting gallery on the corner of Ferry and Commercial streets Monday night, and with a few turns of the light fantastic put out a blaze which had started from a cigarette stump, and which would, if not molested, have proved a serious conflagration. Jack was the keen-eyed passerby, however, and when he noticed the "tongues of fire" he jumped into the door, breaking it in, and kicking the fire out.

Complain of Slow Service—It is claimed by those who have to patronize the Astoria and Columbia River railroad that it is impossible to tell whether a train is a few minutes ahead of time or a day late. They further assert that a good lively glacier if it could follow the track would run into and smash the rear coaches of the passenger trains; that there are no diners and people suffer from hunger between section houses, and the passengers' whiskers grow to such an extent that the conductor doesn't recognize them and accuses them of having scalper's tickets, and a whole lot of other things of that slow kind. The ticket agent being the only thing connected with the line that gets a move on.

Baseball During Fair—Managers Jerman and Heyer, of the Salem Independent baseball club, have agreed to furnish baseball for the Cherry Fair. The combination team composed of Woodburn and Selco will play the Salem Independent on the 8th and 9th, the games to be called at 5 o'clock, sharp, on Willamette field. This hour is adopted in order to give every one a chance to witness the games without missing any of the Cherry Fair.

ADMITS HE IS GUILTY

Alexander Fisher, an Episcopal clergyman in Massachusetts, adopted me and sent me to school. "When I had grown up I moved to Shelburn Falls, Mass., where I met a man named Harvey. We decided to become partners as art dealers in New York and in 1900 we opened a shop on upper Broadway. On December 26, 1900 I set the store afire and burned it down. We had no insurance on it. I simply burned it down because business was poor. My partner did not know that I burned the store and it was the same in each instance. He knew nothing about the fires until they occurred. I was not under his influence.

"After the New York fire we moved to Providence, R. I., where we opened another art goods store which I finally set fire to and collected $203 insurance.

"Our next store was at Quebec, where we remained four weeks, at the end of which time I burned down the store.

"Then we went to Spokane, Wash., and had another fire. The Spokane fire put us out of business. We owed $21,000 when we left Spokane, and had difficulty in raising enough money to open a store at Amesbury, Mass. We remained there three months before I burned that store.

"We got some insurance out of the last fire and then separated. I came to New York and have been here ever since. I set all the fires and am alone responsible."

PERSONAL MENTION

T. H. Alberta left today for his old home in Atlanta, Georgia.

Miss Elizabeth Zangmeister, of Dubuque, Iowa, arrived this morning and will be the guest of her cousin, Mrs. H. C. Schults, and her aunt, Mrs. J. Ruef, for a month.

Attorney G. G. Young, of Portland, is in the city transacting business. "Judge" William Cuffman, of Dallas, was looking after business matters here today, and shaking hands with old-timers.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy A. Johnson, of Seattle, stopped off in this city for a few hours to visit friends. They are bound for Mexico and other southern points of interest.

Harry Girard, one of Portland's most prominent real estate boosters, was transacting business in Salem today.
