That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them; and in confirmation of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvelous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of unsolicited testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic drains, painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus and other displacements caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native, medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle wrapper.

Frank Coffinberry is no wmanager for the Grand theater at Portland. The name is suggestive, but Coffinberry is far from being a dead one.

Violet Pert and W. N. Lynch were married at Shasta Retreat yesterday, they wading into the Sacramento river up to their waists, and standing there while the ceremony was performed. They probably needed the bath, but they might have taken it by their lonesomes in a tub and with warm water and soap—lots of soap.

That couple married in the Sacramento river yesterday, just waded into matrimony.

The use of proverbs some times leads to the expression of ideas not intended, or the veiling of thoughts of the sinister kind. For instance, the epitaph placed by a widow over the body of her deceased husband:

Here lies John Doe, aged 85.
"The good die young."

May Sutton, the champion tennis player, is to marry Harry B. Ham, a banker. Maybe with her knowledge of tennis there will be plenty of "love" in the match.

SALOME DANCE TOO TOUGH FOR JUDGES

[United Press Leased Wire.]

New York, July 8.—Appearing before Solomon "in all his glory," was a trifle compared to the attempt of Mlle. Millie De Leon to illustrate the mazy Salome dance before three gray-haired justices of the court of special sessions yesterday, with the result, that today the danseuse is prohibited from performing the dance under penalty of imprisonment.

The dance has been before the public at Hurtig and Seamon's theater until two weeks ago, when the authorities interferred on the ground that her gyrations were but modified twists of the couchee-couchee.

Mlle. Miller appeared before Justice Deuel, Harris and Olmstead to convince them that the dance was not improper.

"My dance is real Salome," she declared. "I do like this—" and then the young woman lifted her skirts, exposed a pair of dainty ankles, and started the dance.

"Stop it!" thundered Deuel.

"Desist!" cried Harris.

"Cease!" echoed Olmstead.

The dancer paused. The shocked jurists then told her to take her seat while they discussed her punishment. Justice Harris was for ending her to jail, but, after a lengthy conference, sentence was suspended and Mlle. De Leon was warned that a repetition of the dance in public would mean a prolonged stay in the city dungeon.

Caufield in Charge—

"Tommy" Caufield, one of Salem's most wide-awake hustlers, has taken charge of the Elite Cafe, on Commercial street, and will conduct the business according to his own business methods hereafter. Mr. Caufield is recognized as being a good, sensible business man, and his popularity is unlimited in this city. He has been transacting the busines end of of the Eckerlen liquor house for the past several years, and has at various times acted in the capacity of private secretary for a well-known Portland man, "Billy Swope." Mr. Caufield is a great friend of Jay McCormick, Eugene's governor-general, and when Mr. McCormick learns of Tommy's new occupation, it is likely he will make a hasty visit to see that everything is all right.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address
