Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers will find it a priceless aid to prepare the system for baby's coming and render the ordeal comparatively painless and untroubled in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressing sensations in stomach, dizzy faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have discolored pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famed specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest and five medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

X-RAYS AND SMILES

There are no taxes in heaven, and probably no tax dodgers.

The Oregonian's objection to prayer or rain is nothing but agnostic raving and jealousy.

If Leon Ling does not die until the detectives catch him, he will die a lingering death.

The senate didn't monkey long with the lemon tariff schedule. They just handed it to the country.

Seattle's insisting that San Francisco is jealous of her reminds one of the fable of the fly on the ox's horn.

The Oregonian is naturally opposed to direct primary, securing rain by prayer, and everything the people want.

The Capital Journal Cherry Fair edition has been going off fast. Still several thousand left to advertise the City of Opportunity.

August 3d will decide whether Salem people really want to have a public park policy. If Fairmount Hill Park is voted down, there will be no use to bring up any other piece of park property to a popular vote.

The Oregonian says: "It isn't really rain. Only the tears Hofer is shedding over the woes of the people." Anyway to rob that Salem Baptist minister of the glory of his one prayer for a downpour.

It is whispered that if Salem people refuse to vote to purchase Fairmount Park parties are ready to buy the two blocks of beautiful fir trees and slaughter them for cordwood. What a shame that would be to a civilized community.

If the churches of this city want a decent place to hold Sunday school mount Park, and back it up with new pews, and don't pray for Fairmount Park and back it up with their votes on election day, they ought not have any picnic grounds.

There seems to be but little doubt but that the murder of Caroline Brash by Cunningham was caused by her employers, or at least some one in authority over her, deliberately robbing ignorant workmen. Had the bullet reached the right party, no one should have cared much. Not Cunningham, but the girl's employers murdered her.

Cherry Pectoral.

Now doth the long-haired poet grab His pencil and his pad,
To write about the "Beauteous Spring."
"Rose-garlanded and glad,
The flowers, the birds, the butterflies:
The cooling of the dove,
And eke a tinkling madrigal
Upon the theme of love."

The kisses of Youth's balcyon days
Are good enough—for Youth.
That age requires a stronger food
Is but the simple truth.
Instead of taste of cherry lips
And glances, sighs and vows,
It chooses cherries as they grow
Upon the drooping boughs.

I'd rather eat the cherries while
Some other fellow sings:
The Lamberts or the May Dukes, or
The Royal Annes and Bings;
And being, too, a Democrat,
A quasi Bryan man,
I could, without much trouble, eat
A Black Republican.

Although—indeed I've found it so—
The fruit from off that tree,
Along about election time,
Don't quite agree with me.
It leaves a plethoric feeling
As if one was a can
And a taste that loves to linger,
That's all Tartarian.

But this is a digression, for
I only want to say
This is "The Cherry City," where
You get them either way.
The cherry lips for kisses (if
Its kisses that you need)
And cherries if you're wiser, and
Prefer that kind of feed.

So, just look at the exhibit
That Salem has to show.
(The cherries, not the cherry lips,
Is what I mean, you know.)
"They're the sweetest and the finest."
Melinks I hear you say,
That you ever put a lip to—
(And this goes either way).

A Horrible Hold-Up.

"About ten years ago my husband was 'held up' in his work, health and happiness by what was believed to be hopeless constipation," writes Mrs. W. R. Libscomb, of Washington, N. C. "He took all kinds of remedies and treatment from several doctors, but found no help till he used Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles. He is a well man today." Its quick to relieve and the surest cure for weak or sore lungs, Hemorrhages, Coughs and Colds, chills, La Grippe, Asthma and all Bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address

TERRIBLY SCALDED

Is something we hear or read about every day of our lives. Burns and scalds either slight or serious are bound to happen in your family, be prepared by having a bottle of Ballard's Snow Lintiment handy. It relieves the pain instantly and quickly heals the burn. Sold by all dealers.

The Oregonian is opposed to the people of the interior even having a few showers that don't cost anything.

A CONTENTED WOMEN

is always found in the same house with Ballard's Snow Lintiment. It keeps every member of the family free from aches and pains, it heals cuts, burns and scalds and cures all muscular soreness and stiffness, rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago and 25c 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

The head of the ice trust has been indicted and gone to Europe. The country has become too hot for him.

Poison Oak Poisoning
Ballard's Snow Lintiment cures it. Mr. O. H. P. Cornelius, Turner, Or., writes:—My wife Las discovered that Snow Lintiment cures "Poison Oak Poisoning," a very painful trouble. She not only cured a case of it on herself, but on two of her friends who were poisoned by this same ivy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by all druggists.

Hugh Hume, editor of the Spectator, at Portland, seems to be able to publish an influential newspaper, and remain good-natured about it.

Proper Treatment for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

The great mortality from dysentery and diarrhoea is due to the lack of proper treatment at the first stages of the disease. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is reliable and effective medicine, and when given in reasonable time will prevent any dangerous consequences. It has been in use for many years and has always met with unvarying success. For all good druggists.

The way to win in an auto parade seems to be to pack your car full of the prettiest girls in town, and overthrow everybody's judgment.

Many people with chronic throat and lung trouble have found comfort and relief in Foley's Honey and Tar, as it cures stubborn coughs after other treatment has failed. L. M. Rugles, Reasoner, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pains in my lungs, and they are now as sound as a bullet." J. C. Perry.

HELP FOR THOSE WHO HAVE STOMACH TROUBLE

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Polson, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by all good druggists. Samples free.
