SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LNSCOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB.

(Copyright, 1908, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

July 11, 1909.

Paul's Second Missionary Journey. The Philippian Jailer. Acts xvi:16-40.

Golden Text—Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. Acts xvi:31.

Verses 16-21—In what class do you place those who profit by the sins of fallen women?

This young woman was possessed with a very clever spirit of evil, an all round spirit of deception, including fortune telling; now wherein did her sin consist, and that of her owners?

Which are the more to be blamed in these days, fortune tellers or their willing dupes?

When bad men are losing the gains of their evil occupation, are they apt to be careful of the truth, when they are after the good men who have destroyed their business? For example, the liquor dealers.

Verse 22—What made the multitude so angry at Paul and Silas, and is any reliance ever to be placed upon the excited attitude of a large crowd?

Do religious differences still make the people hate one another?

Does worldly gain today play any part in religious intolerance?

Verse 23—Why did God permit such cruelty to his faithful servants? Why is it that godly people often have to go through very exquisite suffering?

Verse 24—Say why it is possible for any good man in prison, lying upon a raw back, with his feet fast in the stocks, to be as happy as a man in health and at liberty?

Does a good man's influence cease when he is imprisoned and his limbs are fettered?

In looking back over the results of his imprisonment, would Paul and Silas be apt to regret this painful incident?

Verse 25—Is there any circumstance so painful, so disastrous, that prayer and praise cannot turn it into joy and victory?

If we prayed and sang more in our private lives and in our families, would we have more joy and gladness?

Verse 26—Was this earthquake the result of the prayer of Paul and Silas, or was it a natural event?

Does God today work out for his people, practically the same results as are here recorded?

Verses 27-28—Why did the jailer decide upon suicide, and is such a course ever justifiable?

Verses 29-30—Was it natural fear or religious conviction that now operated in the jailer?

What did the jailer desire to be saved from?

Verse 31—What precisely did they mean by believing on the Lord Jesus?

May a father or mother believe in Jesus, so as to assure the salvation of their children? (This question is to be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 32—What is "the word of the Lord," and may a person know that word, first hand, who is not personally acquainted with the Lord?

Verses 33-34—Can the grace of God suddenly turn a cruel and brutal man into a tender hearted Christian?

Verses 35-40—May we be confident that there will always be a happy ending to all our trials?
