Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health but who have exacting duties to perform either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as regarding mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable sustaining tonic and invigorating nervine. By its timely use, much serious suffering and suffering may be avoided. The accompanying table and the "Favorite Prescription" is believed to seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were promptly taken. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a genuine or known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, essentially pure, triple-refined glycerine, taking the place of the commonly used alcohol. It may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A little box of these endowment pills will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

X-RAYS AND SMILES

Don't be a slouch or a grouch.

There is one splendid thing about Elinor Glyn's "Three Weeks"—it isn't four.

Give your necks to the Salvation Army. It is not in politics and helps the poor out.

Some people read The Capital Journal for news. Others for information, suggestion and inspiration.

Every one of the animals killed by Colonel Roosevelt is described as being "the largest of the kind killed in many years."

The editor of the Independence Enterprise says he attended the Cherry Fair here, and took a prize, but "the man in charge was looking and made him put it back."

Elinor Glyn's "Three Weeks" is too silly to be even ranked as bad—and the play is sillier than the book. In writing the latter she made a "sow's ear," and then tried, in writing the play, to make a silk purse of it.

Now the charges are that Mr. Heney has been paid for services he did not perform. His receipts show that he was paid in full, and then was paid $10,000 more. About the hardest thing to reform is a professional reformer.

Someone objects to the tax on corporations because it would have a tendency to tempt them to make false returns, and might cause them to violate the law. That fellow has Mark Twain skinned a city block for dry and subtle humor.

J. R. Smith, manager of the North Bend Hardware and Supply Co., has this posted in his office: "The man that goes through life looking for the soft jobs, generally finishes by sitting down and blaming everything on the trusts."

HOPS AND MALT BEAT CANNED LIGHTNING

The baseball score market went soaring yesterday afternoon when the Southern Pacific trainmen and the employees of the Salem brewery took the national game in hand and annihilated nine innings of it in black hand fashion. Thirteen to ten in favor of the makers of joy juice. Very delicate score, eh? Nevertheless the boxer hustlers were on the job every few moments and their "just grand" twirler, Milo Atterbury, played catch with Roscoe Dicky and had lots of fun during the nine rounds. The rest of the railroad men were on time, regularly, and played pussy-wanta-corner with first base and "welts me around again Bill" in a manner that was pleasing to the big bunch of spectators.

Those brewery men made a noise like speculating in railroad stock. George Keeton pitched ball to Ray West and their opponents did a ponderous lot of whizzing the bat, and along with this was a sprinkling of hits and hard drives by the strong arms of the S. P. There have been games played in this city heretofore where the ball was not hit half so often as yesterday and the railroad boys should have the hitting column all their own, if not the run line.

A feature which claims more than passing comment and praise was the playing of John Stollman, the Salem Works proprietor. Did John larup the pill? Sure. He just scraped the dirt away from the bull's eye, moistened his fists a little and "swat," and down to first John traveled. Without insinuating or casting any reflections on the other players, John was the player of the day and he made a decided hit with the spectators, especially the women folks.

During the entire nine innings there was some tiny object perched directly behind the pitcher's plate, and not until after the game did any one discover who or what it was, then some overwise person began heaping baseball indignities upon the unfortunate spot, such as "You're pithy," "Whichever talkin' about? I had 'em out out fer," "Hi him wid a bat," and many other endearing expressions which led the crowd to believe the main object of discussion was Bert Houston, the umpire. After the game, however, Bert was congratulated by hi would-be assassins, and he deserved it, too, owing to the fairness and impartial manner in which he officiated.

Following is the official and tabulated score: Brewery Men. Railroad Men.

LOST THE CORPSE OUT OF THE HEARSE

Springdale, Cal. July 19.—Knowledge of a midnight search along the county road near this city for a corpse that disappeared from Deputy Coroner J. L. Elder's wagon, became public today.

Saturday evening, Elder, accompanied by two assistants, started for San Francisco with a corpse. A short distance from that city the wagon struck an obstruction in the road and the three men were hurled to the ground.

After righting the rig Elder opened the door to assure himself that the corpse was safe and was horrified to find the black wagon box untenanted. A hurried search was vain, and it was nearly an hour before the corpse was found by the roadside, where it had fallen.

Believing the world is good helps to make it better.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Bowel Complaint in Children.

When six months old the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, a well known merchant of Agnewville, Va., had an attack of cholera infantum. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was given and effected a complete cure. This remedy has proven very successful in cases of bowel complaint in children and when given according to the plain printed directions can be relied upon with perfect confidence. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to small children. For sale by all good druggists.
