

JAPANESE SCHOOLBOY WRITES A LETTER TO THE CAPITAL JOURNAL ABOUT SALEM.

Most Esteemed Editor:

I have of late very much arrived in your beautiful Cherry City from my home in Chico, Cal., where I departed from in the nick of time to save my lives of most awful sun-strokes. If I should be the proprietor of many Almanacs, and try to make a most suitable days for a s. picnic I would be a dismal failure as compared to these "made in Salem" days what exist in these beautiful itly of America. You are to be congratulated on the many beautiful advantages of your climate and many strangers in your gates will rouse up in the middle centers of the night and call you blessed by reason of your blankets under which you are compelled to retire before you go to bed. Instead of the tortures of constant combat with wing anmles and fierce bill insect as obtain in my native countries of Chico, I have here enjoyed such constant sleep that my land ladies have long since called me to breakfast which is already late & I am therefore com-

pell to enjoy my cate meales & honorable hotcakes in silence. Last night I enjoyed with pleasure the music of your hon. band in Mr. Wilson's ave and I have not anticipated such a beautiful sight since many years. Scatter over the ground in various angle, like so many beautiful flower, I am greet with the sight of your entire populace on the lawn or promenade to the inspire music of the 2 step or waltz. There are truly a grand scenes, and must be must enjoy by everybody.

I have waste little time to see your magnificent Will Ametto river, and have also enjoy the great pleasure of a swim within its banks, which are made famous by a beautiful poems wrote by most hon. Sam Simson as can be well seen by application to 100 choice selections. It have occur to me that your people do not fully appreciate the advantage of open air and I am sadly convince of this, by the notorious absence of house boat on the river bank and sleeping tent on the island to which I see your hon. Ferry is tied. I see you have laudible objects in view by explain of HON. Charley Dennison, the Char-

on of "The beautiful Will Ametto" who expatiate that my city Father have acquire the temporary use of much gravel, and will benefit many streets by apply of same for hard surface pavement. These are such courses of progress that must be commend by all, and therefore make a permanent City to which many persons ar. attract.

Any one will object but that you have a beautiful city, and liberal endow of many natural advantage. Everybody to says a spirits of improve has escape in the land, and that from these on Salem will be no James Crow towns, but a towns to which all peoples will be glad to come when the hon. Board of Trades notify them that we are ready.

At some future times I will be glad to tell you about some things scattered about your city as a strangers see them.

With Hon. Respt.

T. NOGI, F. W.
