TO MAKE CAMPAIGN FOR PARK

Arrangements Completed for "Tag Day"—Ladies Will Work for the City Playground.

The ladies in charge of the campaign for the Fairmount Park election next Monday are hard at it. Something will be doing every minute from now until the polls close. Saturday has been set aside as tag day and scores of girls will canvass the city for the sale of tags bearing this legend, on one side; "Fairmount Park" in brilliant red letters; on the other side, "Don't forget to vote for Fairmount Park next Monday." These tags will be sold for a triple purpose; as a reminder to the purchaser, as an advertisement to the public at large for the Fairmount Park election, and as a means of raising a fund to pay the expenses of this unique park campaign. The committee on tag day consists of Mrs. H. S. Pissal, Mrs. G. F. Quaintance, and Mrs. A. Vass. These ladies will meet the girls who have been named as a sub-committee at the Board of Trade rooms Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for final instructions. At that time full particulars will be discussed, the girls supplied with their tags and all details perfected.

On Sunday afternoon the Salem Military Band will play on Fairmount Park and a good program of sacred music will be had. Miss Magers will lead to the attractions of the day with a good chorus, and other musical features will be had. Addresses will be given by some of the leading ministers and professional men of the city. It will be a quiet, unique boost for the betterment of Salem, and for the permanent establishment of Fairmount Park. Special cars will be run and everybody will be given an opportunity to learn all the particulars in connection with this worthy enterprise. Committees of citizens and the Council will be present to point out the boundaries and other features of the proposed park. Every citizen who can possibly give the time should visit the park Sunday afternoon.

TWELVE YEAR OLD CHILD PREACHES ON PRAYER

That was a wonderful sermon delivered last night at the First Methodist church by Inez Bower, the 12-year-old child preacher, who is certainly entitled to be called the world's pulpit phenomena. Late in the afternoon her mother wired that Inez would not be well enough to preach. A lady on the committee who believes in prayer wired back that they would ask for divine help. Inez arrived with her mother on a late train, and was not well until 10 minutes before leaving the house to go to the church. She ate no supper, but asked permission to go to her room and engage in prayer. With that brief preparation, and she never has any other, she delivered a remarkable sermon on the subject of "Power" that was entirely extemporaneous, and many in the audience declared that it was equal to anything in that line that had been done by Dean Kimball of the theological seminary. The little girl had the biggest audience ever assembled in the First church. Chairs, benches and tables were carried in for people to sit upon, all the standing room was taken and hundreds were turned away.
